Whereby the petitioners were seized and parted the premises among themselves, so that the said manors of Great Farneley, Little Farneley, Okenshawe, Clakeheton, Sceles, Colling, Conyngley, Gairgrave, Poterton, Brymston, Kyreby upon Wharfe, Northmyleford, and Hoten Longvillers, co. Lancaster, to the pouparty of the petitioner Margaret; whereby the said petitioner Langton was sole seized of the manors mentioned as his pouparty. The king's licence was not obtained in these transfers, and the petitioners have long been sued in chancery to have the premises, but owing to a diversity of opinions among the judges and other learned men of the king's council in the chancery, they have not been able to obtain them. The king now, by advice of the council, and for 100l. to be paid at the Receipt of the Exchequer, has pardoned the trespasses herein, and grants that the petitioners may have the premises with any issues thereof not already answered to the king, saving to the king homage, relief and other services.
