attendance on her person, has surrendered his estate in the said William's favour, the latter taking the 3d. a day wages out of the issues and profits of the manor of Laudgarshale, and the other fees and profits which have usually belonged to the said office, in like manner as Richard Halsham, predecessor of the said Richard Creke, did when alive.

And the king now grants that, should the said queen die in the life time of the said William, he shall continue to hold the office during pleasure.

March 27.
Westminster.

It was found by inquisition before Geoffrey Rokell, escheator in the county of Essex, that John Bohun, knight, deceased, granted to Thomas Dale, clerk, and John Leget, chaplain, who still survive, their heirs and assigns, the manor of Filolleshall in Kelvedon with its appurtenances in the towns of Kelveden, Feryng, Great Braxsted, Messyng, Inneworth, Bradwell by Coggeshale, Esthorp, Copford, Great Brych, Tolleshunte Treygose, Tolleshunte Chivaller and Teryng whereby they were seised, without the king's leave being obtained, and that the premises are held of the king as of the castle of Dover by the service of one knight's fee. On the death of the said John Bohun and by reason of this trespass the premises were taken into the king's hand, but now, for 10 marks paid in the hanaper, he has pardoned the trespass and granted that the said Thomas and John Leget shall have the manor again.
