1433.
    Feb. 19.
    Westminster.

Membrane 6d—cont.

Commission to Robert Sheffield, Robert Perieby, John Bernaby and the sheriff of the county of Lincoln, or to two or more of them, to survey the lands, houses, orchards and mills within the manor and town of Bondyby, co. Lincoln, and to enquire by the oath of men of the county as to wastes, sales, destructions and exiles which are reported to have been done in the same by certain farmers and others.

MEMBRANE 5d.

March 24.
    Westminster.

Commission to John Uvedale, William Soper, Thomas Haydok and the sheriff of the county of Southampton, or to two or more of them, to enquire whether a certain ship of Brittany, laden with salt and other merchandise, of which John de Lounes is master, and which is being detained in the port of Portsmouth, came to England in peaceful or war-like manner; and, if the former, then to enquire into the circumstances of her capture, and to have her released with the merchants, mariners and tackle, and all the goods which were on her when taken or the value thereof.

April 16.
    Westminster.

Commission to William Phelip, knight, the king’s chamberlain, Thomas Echyngham, knight, Roger Fienes, knight, Thomas Leukenore, knight, William Pope, William Baron and Robert Whitgreve, or to two or more of them, to take at Wynchelsea on the morrow of St. George’s Day next the muster of the men at arms and archers, who are about to proceed to France in the company of John, earl of Huntingdon.

The like to the same to take the like muster at Wynchelsea on 30 April next.

April 15.
    Westminster.

Commission to Walter, lord of Hungerford, William Phelip, knight, the chamberlain, William Porter, knight, Ralph Boteler, knight, to determine the respective shares of the household servants of Henry V, under that king’s will. [Federu.]

May 9.
    Westminster.

Appointment of William Paston, Robert Cavendysh, William Clopton and John Harleston, or to two or three of them, including either Paston or Cavendysh, to deliver the gaol of Bury St. Edmunds of John Berton of Dounham, co. Suffolk, clerk.

May 22.
    Westminster.

Commission to James Strangways, John Colpepyr, knight, John Burgh and Thomas Palmere, or to two or more of them, to enquire by the oath of men of Rutland as to escapes of traitors, felons and fugitives.

May 27.
    Westminster.

Whereas a vessel of Newpord in Flanders, Hugh Vanden Dyke, of Newpord, master, laden with goods of John Galafers, Godfrey Vascric, Peter Vanden Velde and John Wale, burgesses of Bruges, while sailing towards Scotland, was taken by persons belonging to Newcastle upon Tyne, and brought to that town, where the goods were divided as enemies’ goods, the king is informed by letters under the common seal of Bruges, that the said John, Godfrey, Peter and John were the owners of the vessel and goods, and being desired that they should be treated as friends, commissions the mayor of Newcastle, William Chaunceller and Roger Thordon, or two of them, to enquire into whose possession the vessel and goods have come, and cause restitution to be made.

May 23.
    Westminster.

Whereas certain dykes and places whereby divers waters in parts of the vale of Belver in the wapentakes of Byngham and Newark, in the county of Nottingham, between the towns of Langer and Byngham, and so,