Membrane 14—cont.

1433.

Aug. 8.
Westminster.

Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to John Threpland, clerk of the bakery, of a third part of the profits and revenues from the common passage and ferry over the water of Twede between Twedemouth and Berewyk on Twede, which John Grene had when alive, by the hands of the farmers or occupiers of the said ferry.

By p.s.

Westminster.

Commission to Thomas Hegeman to provide pheasants, partridges and other fowl for the household for half a year.

By bill of the treasurer of the household.

Aug. 13.
Westminster.

July 8.
Westminster.

Commission to John Goldney, to provide freshwater fish, and nets and other engines for taking them. By bill of the treasurer of the household.

Licence, by advice of the lords spiritual and temporal and at the request of the commonyalty of England in the present Parliament, for Thomas Coventre, Thomas Denton, Laurence Cheyne, John Chaldewell, 'clerke,' and Richard Forster to grant in mortmain to the prioresse and nuns of the church of St. Nicholas, Litilmore, co. Oxford, 60s. of yearly rent out of 6 messuages and 5 acres of meadow in Oxford in exchange for all the lands, tenements, and fisheries, with all their rights, franchises, liberties and appurtenances, of the said prioresse and nuns in Berewe, Ely and Thetford, co. Cambridge, to be granted to the said Thomas Coventre, his fellows, and their heirs; provided always that the bishop of Ely be not prejudiced by this grant.

By pet. in Parl. and for God because they are poor.

July 29.
Westminster.

It having been shown to the king and council by the king’s servant William Staunton that the letters patent dated 22 May last, whereby he was appointed purveyor of furs and pelts, are invalid because they do not mention what wages he is to receive nor by whose hands, the king, at his request and by advice of the council, has granted him from 22 May last, during pleasure, the said office of purveyor in the port of London and other ports, of furs and pelts for the king, which furs and pelts he is to deliver when purchased to the keeper of the Great Wardrobe, by whom he is to receive yearly wages of 12d. a day and his livery for summer and for Christmas last with his Christmas fur, and so from year to year, in the same manner as Henry Barton, the last purveyor, received these. By p.s.

MEMBRANE 13.

July 15.
Westminster.

Inspeceimus and confirmation of the following:—

1. A demise by John, archbishop of York, primate of England and papal legate, dated at York palace, 5 August A.D. 1430, 8 Henry VI, to John Arthington and Elizabeth his wife, their heirs and assigns, for 300 years from the date of the deed at the yearly rent of 20d. payable at Martinmas and Whitsuntide, of a plot of land in the town of Ripon touching the northern part of the churchyard of the chapel of St. Mary in Staynbrygge, Ripon, and having the said churchyard on the south and tenements of the vicars of the collegiate church of Ripon on the north. The eastern edge of the plot measures 31 royal ells and 1 foot along Staynbrygge, the western edge along the garden of the archbishop’s manor house there, 28 royal ells, the southern edge from the way of Staynbrygge on the east westward 31 royal ells, and the northern edge from the said way of Staynbrygge 21 royal ells.