Licence for Simon Catayn and his fellows, merchants of Genoa, to ship their woollen cloth and tin from Southampton, they having found sureties (named) that they will import the quantity of bullion required by the statute of 8 Henry V, within one year. By p.s. Votated because otherwise in the eleventh year.

Appointment during pleasure of John Burton to be surveyor of the search in the port of Kyngeston upon Hull, with the usual fees and wages. By bill of the treasurer.

The like of Thomas Wynter in the port of Bristol. By the like bill.

Presentation of John Oculshagh to the church of Drayton Passelowe, in the diocese of Lincoln.

Inspecimus and confirmation, by advice and assent of the lords spiritual and temporal in the Parliament held at Westminster in the king's first year, to the abbot and convent of Wynchecumbe of letters patent, dated 25 July, 1 Henry IV. [Patent Roll, 1 Henry IV, part 8, m. 18.] By K. & C. in Parl.

By inquisition taken virtute officii before John May, late escheator in the county of Middlesex, and sent before the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer, it has been found that Richard Comberton, esquire, now deceased, who held one third of the manor of Totcynham in chief by knight service, alienated one third part of such third part to Richard Chippenham, Richard Northernyn, John Seward and John Joce, still surviving, and to Richard Lynne, since deceased, in fee simple, and they entered therein without licence. The said third part was accordingly taken into the king's hands, but now for 26s. 8d. paid in the hanaper, the king has pardoned the trespass, and granted licence to the said surviving feoffees to have again the said third part.

Licence for Richard, earl of Salisbury, warden of the West March towards Scotland, to buy 500 quarters of barley and 800 quarters of malt in the counties of Norfolk, Suffolk or Lincoln, and ship them to Kyngeston on Hull, York, and Newcastle-upon-Tyne, to victual and stock the castle and town of Carlisle. He engages that the said barley and malt shall not be taken to any other place.

Appointment during pleasure of Richard Westby to the office of the tonnage and pesage in the port of Boston, at the usual fees and wages. By bill of the treasurer.

Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to Roger Wilnehale, clerk, of the city of Coventry, of the keeping of the lesser piece of the seal for the recognisances of debts under the statute of Acton Burnell, with proper fees and profits. By p.s.

Appointment, during pleasure, of Thomas Rokes to the office of ganger in the port of Southampton at the usual fees and wages. By bill of the treasurer.