Dec. 2. Westminster. Grant, by advice and assent of the lords spiritual and temporal in present Parliament, and at the request of William Estfeld, Hamo Sut and Hugh Dyke, who have lent the king 8,000 marks for the defence of the realm, that they, and Henry, cardinal of England and bishop Winchester, John, archbishop of York, William, bishop of Norwich, Ralph, lord Cromwell, knight, to their use, shall receive repayment as follows:

5,000 marks at the receipt of the Exchequer out of the yearly revenues and profits of the possessions of John, late duke Bedford, from the exaltation of the Holy Cross last, the date of his death, and from the possessions of John, late earl of Arran which are in the king’s hands by reason of the marriage of his daughter from the date of his death, except from such possessions as are assigned for dower to the duchess of Bedford and count of Arundel, after such assignment, so long as the said posses remain in the king’s hands or until the said sum of 5,000 marks has been paid:

1,000 marks from the revenues of the duchy of Cornwall by hands of the receiver:

2,000 marks out of the treasury at the receipt of the Exchequer and the treasurer shall cause the necessary tallies to be levied [Rot Parliament, iv. 485, 486].
