Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to John Hampton, king's esquire, of the office of constable of the castle of Chester, to be discharged by him in person or by deputy, with the accustomed fees and wages from the date of the death of Thomas Bolde, esquire, late constable, by the hands of the chamberlain of Chester, and all other profits to the same belonging.

Vacated by surrender, because the king on 14 December in his sixteenth year granted him the said office for life.

Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to Ralph Botiller, king's knight, of the office of master forester of Snowdon, in North Wales; to be discharged by him in person or by his deputy, with the accustomed fees and wages, in the same manner as Thomas Bolde, esquire, had the same when alive.

Vacated by surrender, because the king on 10 April in his fifteenth year granted him the said office and the offices of chief butler and constable of Conway Castle.

Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council to Thomas Poulford, one of the yeomen of the chamber, of the offices of clerk and keeper of the king's mills of Dee at the town of Chester, and of keeper of the king's fishery there, to be discharged by him or his deputy, with 6d. a day for his wages by his own hands, and other accustomed profits, such as Robert Castell, deceased, had, notwithstanding that the said Poulford has, by the king's grant, 6d. a day out of the profits of the county of Wilts for his fee of the crown.

Grant, by advice of the council, to William Selby, chaplain, of the hospital of St. Margaret, Huntyngdon, void by the death of Master John Sudbery.

Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to John Mone, serjeant-usher of the hall, for good service to the king's father and to the king, of the office of constable of the castle of St. Brevell, to be discharged by him or his deputy, with the accustomed wages, fees and profits.

Vacated by surrender, because the king on 20 February in his sixteenth year granted him the said office for life.

Grant for life to John Salesbury, 'chivaler,' who has not wherewithal to live, of such sustenance in the king's college within his castle of Wyndesore, with such fees and wages, as other knights have had, and the dwelling (mansionem) there which Walter Biterle, 'chivaler,' had when alive.

Presentation of William Chauntrell, chaplain, to the vicarage of Stratfeldmortemer, in the diocese of Salisbury, void by the resignation of Robert Webbeley.

Presentation of Nicholas Wythen, vicar of the church of St. Wendron, in the diocese of Exeter, to the church of SS. Prothus and Jacinclus, Bleston, in the same diocese, on an exchange of benefices with Thomas Cardieu.

Inspeximus and confirmation, by advice and assent of the lords spiritual and temporal in the Parliament held at Westminster in the king's first year, to Brian de Stapilton, king's knight, the present tenant, of a charter dated at Bordeaux, 25 September, 38 Henry III, granting to Oliver de Ingham and his heirs a fair at the manor of Wastoonesham, co. Norfolk.

24881