1436.

The like to Thomas de Leakenore, knight, and William Baron, to the muster of William, earl of Suffolk, and his retinue of 40 men at arms and 160 archers.

The like to Thomas Eechyngham, knight, Roger Fyenles, and Richard Wodeyvll and ———, and to two or three of them, to take the muster of Richard, earl of Salisbury, and his retinue of 260 men at arms and 1400 archers.

May 15.

The like to Robert Whitgreve and William Baron to take the muster at Wynehelse on Saturday next of John Popham, knight, and his retinue of 100 men at arms and archers.

May 16.

The like to the same to take the muster at Wynchelse on Tuesday or Thursday next, of William, earl of Suffolk, and his retinue.

MEMBRANE 4d.

May 14.

Commission, pursuant to the statute of Westminster the Second and subsequent statutes, on complaint by the people of the county of York to fishing having been done with unlawful engines in the waters of the Humbre, Ouse, Dowe, Eyre, Derwent, Querf, Nydde, Yore, Swale, and These, to Guy Fairfax, John Thwaytes, Randolph Pigote, Thomas Wyllett, William Howethorp, William Pollard, John Hoos, and John Wyelles or to two or more of them including either Fairfax, Thwaytes, Wharf, or Howethorp, to be overseers for those waters for the preservation of the salmon.

July 5.

Commission to Thomas Pope and Gerard Pulham to arrest man and others, not hired to serve in other ships, to the number required, two balingers of the king’s, one called Jesus and the other Jakes.

July 18.

Commission to Master Nicholas Uppetton, clerk, William Bolingbroke, esquire, Thomas Tanke, esquire, and William Soper, to take the muster at Southampton, on Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday next, of John Popham, knight, Thomas Ask, esquire, Lewis Mewes, esquire, and Thomas Holcombe, esquire, and the men-at-arms and archers who are about to proceed in their retinue to Cales.

July 12.

Commission to William Wolf, knight, for the safe-conduct of victual to Cales, to take fENCIBLE men and mariners, by agreement with the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, to man with them shipping of victual said commissioner or of other persons, and to convey the said victual to the army of Humphrey, duke of Gloucester, wherever it may be, and resist the king’s enemies both by land and sea.