MEMBRANE 34.

It has been shown to the king and council by John Malpas that the letters patent dated 3 July, 1 Henry VI, whereby the king granted him the keeping of the king's armour in the Tower of London with the usual wages at the hands of the keeper of the privy wardrobe, have been of no effect because the master keepers of the said privy wardrobe have not received any money or assignments of money from any treasurer of England to provide armour, artillery, or anything else, or to pay wages
