Licence, by advice of the council, for John de Veur, earl of Oxford, to enfeoff John Tyrell, knight, John Doreward, esquire, Edward Tyrell, esquire, Robert Darcy, esquire, John Symond, apprentice of the town of Canterbury, to John Whiteman, the last for the manors of Gondu, King, and Eastham. Licence, by advice of the council, for William Bolton and John Wayte of the manors of Hengham, Great Benteleg, Earl's Court, Stansted Mountfitchet, Caumpes, Saxton and Great Hormede, in the counties of Essex, Hertford, Cambridge, Middlesex and Buckingham, to rent, hold and enfeoff the premises to hold to him and his heirs.

Ratification of the estate of William Holden as parson of the church of Kyrkely, in the diocese of Norwich; provided that no plea there shall be pending in the king's court and that the king have not presented to another parson.

Presentation of Henry Empylyngham, chaplain, to the church of Northlydeyard, in the diocese of Salisbury.

Commission to William Conyton of London, 'tyler,' to provide timber, laths, nails and other things belonging to the tyler's office, to repair the Tower of London, Westminster, 'les Mewes' and the manors of Sheen, Kenyngton and Eltham, and to arrest and put to work the requisite timber and labourers. By bill of John Ardern, clerk of the king's workshop.

Licence for the prior and convent of Shirburn to elect an abbot in the room of John Brunyng, deceased.

Presentation of Robert Thurgarton, parson of the church of Mulberry, in the diocese of Lincoln, to the church of Lyvering in the diocese of Ely, on an exchange of benefices with John Alyson; directed to the guardian of the spirituality of the bishopric of Ely.

Whereas Thomas Courtenay, earl of Devon, lately demised the estate, honour, manor and hundred of Plympton, the castle, honour, manor and borough of Okhampton, and the manors of Sampford Courteyne, Duelti, Whynpele, Aylesbeare, Exlond and Ken, co. Devon, held in chief; Walter Collis, clerk; John Odelond, clerk; John Copleston, John Hooper; William Doel, William Bisshop and Thomas Lome, for twenty years from 2 July last, the king, by advice of the council, has granted licence for him to release to them all his right in the premises, and for them to re-enfeoff the said earl of the premises to hold to him and his heirs.

Order, by advice of the council, for the treasurer to deliver to the cardinal of England, jewels of the king which the said treasurer and cardinal can agree to value at 8000 marks, as security for the repayment of that sum still due out of the 20000L which the said cardinal lent to the king to send his army into France; with power to the cardinal to sell such jewels if half the said 8000 marks be not paid at the quinzaine of Martinmas next and the other half at Whitsuntide following. By permission of the council.

Licence, by advice of the council, for the same cardinal, who has just lent the king 10000 marks for the preservation of his realm of France, for security of repayment thereof, lords of the council and others have given him their bonds under seal, and for his executors and assignees in the event of his not being repaid, to sue on such bonds without the realm of England, any statute or ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.