8. Letters patent of John, bishop of Lincoln, dated at Lincoln, 29 July, 1392, in the thirtieth year of his consecration, whereby, after reciting the services of Richard II against the Lollards and his many royal virtues, the said bishop, with the assent of the dean and chapter of Lincoln, on the petition of the said king appropriated to the said priory situat'd in a sterile and solitary place, in the forest of Colyngrigge, the lands whereof are wasted by wild beasts, whom it is not possible to tame, the said church of the clear yearly value of 30 marks, and grants licence for them to enter therein at the next canonical voidance; provided that they reserve a portion of the fruit; at the bishop's discretion for a vicar to have cure of souls in the parish, and that in compensation to the church of Lincoln every Christmas they pay a pension of 6s. 8d. to the bishop, or to the dean and chapter of Lincoln when the see be void, or to the chapter in the absence of the dean.

4. Confirmation of the above by John, the dean, and the chapter of Lincoln, dated at their chapter house, 1 August, 1392.

5. The like by Thomas, archdeacon of Oxford, dated at Oxford, 2 December, 1391, subject to the payment by the prioress and nun's to him and his successors of a yearly pension of 12d. at Michaelmas.

For 1/ mark paid in the hanaper.

MEMBRANE 35.

Nov. 15. Westminster. Commission, by advice of the council, to William Wake, to provide 40 horses for the king's service, as well for his saddle as for his chariots and carriages.

By C.

Nov. 21. Westminster. Grant, during pleasure, to James Stundyss, esquire, of the office of constable of Dennevor, co. Carmenden, Wales, with all wages, fees and profits anciently accustomed; he having shown that he served for 15 years under the duke of Bedford in France, was thrice taken prisoner and is now in the king's service of the war with the count of Morten and petitioned for the said office as Roland Stundyss, knight, had it, with its issues and profits to the yearly value of 20 marks.

By p.s.

Nov. 21. Westminster. Pardon to Thomas Selatier alias Thomas Coventre of London, 'skymyn,' of his outlawry in the county of Middlesex for not appearing before the king to answer touching divers trespasses, contempts and extortions, whereof he was indicted, he having surrendered to the Marshalsea prison of the King's Bench, as William Cheyne, the chief justice, has certified.

Nov. 14. Westminster. Whereas the office of the keeping of the house appointed for the stock of the king's wardrobe within the castle of Wyndesore is without any officer to keep the vestments and jewels therein, and whereas David Chirke has discharged the duties for the last three years without fee or wage, but cannot continue such charge; the king grants him the said office during pleasure with the usual wages and fees by the hands of the treasurer of the household.

By p.s.

Nov. 8. Westminster. Grant, during pleasure, to Robert Atkynson, yeoman of the ewy for the king's mouth, of the office of launder of Plompton, co. Cumberland, to hold himself or by deputy, with the usual wages, fees and profits.

By p.s. [8420.]