MEMORANDUM 29—cont.

Grant, during pleasure, to the warden and convent of the friars minors of Boston, of the king's patronage by reason of the lordship of Richemond having recently come into his hands, of 8 quarters of wheat a year, for a long time delivered to them by way of alms, as the king has heard, provided that they can show that they have received such an amount yearly by the hands of the receiver of the lordship.

By p.s.

Jan. 27. Westminster

Grant, during pleasure, to Richard Wideville, king's esquire, of the office of constable of the castle of Rouchestre, to hold himself or by deputy, with the accustomed wages, fees and profits from the revenues of the lordship of Rouchestre or from the custody of the castle. By p.s.

March 8. Westminster.

Grant to the king's kinsman William, earl of Suffolk, of the marriage of Anne, daughter and heir of Robert Harlyng, knight, who held by knight service of John, duke of Norfolk, late a minor in the king's ward, the said earl paying for the said marriage 100l. in hand at the receipt of the Exchequer.

MEMORANDUM 28.

Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to the king's sergeants, Richard Parker, esquire, and John Penycoke, yeoman of the king's robes, of the keeping of the park of Byletce, co. Surrey, to hold themselves or by deputy in survivorship, with the accustomed wages, fees and profits; notwithstanding that the said John has, by letters patent of the king, 6d. a day by the hands of the sheriff of Somerset and Dorset.

By p.s.

Grant, during pleasure, to Gervase de Vulr, one of the king's secretaries, in consideration of his good and gratuitous services in the realm of France, of 100 marks a year from 11 December last at the Receipt of the Exchequer.

By p.s.

Grant to Roger Aston, knight, in consideration of his good services to the king's progenitors and to the king and of his age and infirmity, that he shall not be put on assizes, juries, attainders, inquisitions or recognitions, or be made sheriff, escheator, coroner, collector, taxor or assessor of tenths, fifteenths, taxes or subsidies, or trier or arrayer of men at arms, hobelers or archers or other officer or minister of the king or his heirs.

By p.s.

Feb. 27. Westminster

Ratification of the estate of John Poleard as parson of the church of Wynterborne, in the diocese of Salisbury, provided no plea thereof be pending in the king's court.

The like of John Clerk as parson of the church of Byncombe, in the same diocese.

Jan. 5. Eltham Manor.

Grant, during pleasure, to Thomas Eston, king's esquire, of the office of bailiff of the honour and franchise of Walyngford, to hold himself or by deputy, with the ancient wages, profits and fees, as William Wynne had it.

By p.s. 3171.

The fisherfolk of the Norfolk coast having shown to the king and council that the principal season of fishing is from Easter to Michaelmas, but that they cannot go out to sea to fish on account of the arrest of their persons and vessels for the king's service, the king, by advice of the