Membrane 22—cont.

by grant of Henry V, 100s. by the hands of the sheriff of Wilts, and, by grant of the king, 12l. a year by the hands of the abbot of Gloucester, and the constable of Plecy and keeping of the little park there.

Mandate to the receiver general of the duchy for the payment of the said wages.

Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to Thomas Lonley, Knight, Christopher Curwen, knight, Henry Fenwyk, knight, and Master Alexander Cok, of power to grant letters of safe conduct for persons in the realm of Scotland to come to the West March or the king's presence.

Vacated because otherwise in the Scotch Told.

Grant to John Hargrewe and Richard Ludlowe, yeoman, butler for the mouth, of the office of Bagshotes bailee in the forest of Wyndesore, with the appurtenant fees and profits, and 6d. a day out of the issues of the counties of Oxford and Berks for the life of the said John, and after his death to the latter or his deputy, during pleasure; in hen of a grant thereof to the said John, surrendered notwithstanding that the said Richard has, by grant of the king, the office of parker of Henley in le Heth and the keeping of Henley manor and 4d. a day wages, also other lands called Claggate and Whetehershe to the yearly value of 100s.

by purchase from Nicholas Tyle.

Vacated because surrendered, the king on 22 November in his sixteenth year having granted the said Richard Ludlowe for life the office of parker of Henley in le Heth, the keeping of the manor in the said park, the office of Bagshotes bailee and the lands called Claggate and Whetehershe, at Henley on le Heth.

Grant, during pleasure, to Robert Whityngham, late receiver general to John, duke of Bedford, of 10 marks a year out of the lordship and manor of Saldene and its members in the counties of Bedford and Buckingham.

Vacated because in the 11th year.

Grant, during pleasure, to Richard Aas of the office of keeping the park of Helby, co. York, and the out woods there, to hold himself or by deputy, with the wages, fees and profits anciently accustomed.

Inspecimus and confirmation to William Ryke, esquire, servant of the household of the archbishop of York of the following:

1. Letters patent of John, archbishop of York, dated in the hospital of St. James' by Westminster, 11 November, A.D. 1436, granting to the said William for life, in consideration of his services in connection with the new building of the archbishop's manor house of Suthwell, the keeping of the said manor and of the garden, or great close, adjoining the same, to hold himself or by deputy, with a house or chamber newly built over the entrance-porch of the hall, with 10 marks a year out of the issues of the manor, and with the right to distrain, should the payment be 15 days in arrear.

2. An inspecimus and confirmation of the above by W. the dean, and by the chapter of the cathedral church of York dated in the chapter house at York, 16 December, 1436.

For 10s. paid in the hanaper.

Grant, during pleasure, to Thomas Aventre, one of the grooms of the chamber, of the office of parker of the park of Shoteywoke, lately called 'Burnewell wodes,' co. Chester, to hold himself or by deputy, with the accustomed wages, fees and profits.

By p.s.