Membrane 13—cont.

Grant, for life, to Walter Strikland, king's esquire, of the office of keeper of the park of Calgarth, co. Westmoreland, to hold himself or by deputy, with the usual wages by the hands of the receivers, farmers or occupiers of the lordship of Kendale and other accustomed fees and profits; notwithstanding that he has the office of master of the 'hayriers,' worth 12d. a day, and that of master forester of Arundell, worth 10l. a year, during the minority of the earl of Arundell and 10l. fee by the hands of the sheriffs of London. By p.s.

Appointment, during pleasure, of Giles Thorndon, king's esquire, one of the ushers of the chamber, to be treasurer of the land of Ireland, with the fees and wages customarily accustomed, in the same manner as Thomas Strange, knight, late treasurer, held the office. By p.s.

Licence, for 5 marks paid in the hanaper, for Thomas Repynghale of Repynghale, William Saxy, citizen and fishmonger of London, Robert Robynson, clerk, John Florthes, clerk, and Roger Bay, to grant the manor of Haemby, co. Lincoln, held of the king in chief, to John Stoughton and his heirs.

Grant, for life, to Ralph Babthorp, king's esquire, of the offices of steward and master forester of the forest of Galtres, co. York, to hold himself or by deputy, with the accustomed wages, fees and profits; notwithstanding that he has, during pleasure, the office of steward of the lordship of Kyerton in Linsey with the sake of the duchy of Cornwall in Lincolnshire, worth 10 marks a year, the office of constable of Scarborough Castle, co. York, worth 10 marks a year, and 2 pipes of Gascon wine a year for Christmas in the port of Kingston upon Hull. By p.s.

Ratification of the estate of William Hope, doctor of laws, as canon of the cathedral church of Lincoln and prebendary of the prebend called Bedford minor in the same. By p.s.

Licence for Robert, prior of the church of St. Mary, Newstead, in Shrewsbury, and the convent thereof, to enclose a parcel of ground containing 8 acres within the forest of Shrewsbury, just before the entry of the said priory and to dyke, quick set and hedge it after the assay of the forest and hold it in severalty; the said parcel lying between the priory and 'les Dammes' and the closes of the priory on the west, south and east, and the highway from Maumsefield to Tapelwyk on the north; beginning at the north end at the head of 'de Damme' of the priory which is called Rownefen along the highway to 'le Levevate' towards Tapelwyk which stands upon the abbey field towards the south end, and being part of their foundation by Henry II.; for which they are to render at the Exchequer one rose at midsummer for all suits, services and demands. By p.s. [3821.]

Presentation of Thomas, clerk, chaplain, to the church of St. Andrew, Hertford, in the diocese of Lincoln, void by the resignation of John Saltry.

Grant, during pleasure, to Thomas Tangley, groom of the jewels, of the office of the 'raglote' of the advowry of all the comnon of Anglesey in North Wales; to hold himself or by deputy, with the accustomed wages, fees and profits, reserving to the king his due. By p.s. [3701.]

Vacated because surrendered, the king on 20 November in his sixteenth year having granted him the same office for life.