Grant for life to John Stanley, king's esquire, of the office of constable of the castle of Caernarvon in North Wales, to hold himself or by deputy, with the fee of 40l. a year, in lieu of a grant thereof by letters patent dated 7 April, 15 Henry VI, surrendered as invalid under the statute of Henry IV [stat. 1 Henry IV, cap. 6]; notwithstanding that he has the offices of serjeant of the king's armoury within the Tower of London, with 12l. a day wages, and the office of sheriff of Anglesey, North Wales, with 20l. a year fees.

By p.s.

Revocation of the protection with clause columnas for one year granted on 25 June last to Thomas flenynge or Flennynge of Lincoln, 'chapman' or 'marchant,' as being in Normandy in the company of Robert de Willughby, captain of the town and castle of Bateux, because he tarries in Lincoln, as the sheriffs of that city have certified.

Grant to William Bouteller, one of the yeomen of the king's 'pycherhous,' of the office of 'la raglote' of the commote of Tallebolion with 'le ammobre' of the same in the county of Anglesey, North Wales, to hold himself or by deputy, with the accustomed issues and fees, at the king's will.

By p.s.

Grant, during pleasure, to William Jankyns, the king's servant, of the office of keeping the king's park under the castle of Prodowe, co. Northumberland, to hold himself or by deputy, with the accustomed wages, fees and profits, the wages to be taken by the hands of the receiver, farmer or bailiff of the castle.

By p.s.

Licence for William Milreth and Thomas Canynges of London, merchants, to despatch a ship called the Marie, of which Outerfrise is master, to the town of Ernematie in Zeeland, and to man and arm 3 other ships, 1 barge and 2 balingers to convey her thither, they to keep the sea for a month after her arrival and to fight the king's enemies; any goods captured by the king's lieges to belong to the captors saving to the admiral of England and the warden of the Cinque Ports their custom called 'le shares,' provided always that customs, subsidies and other dues are paid for lawful merchandise and that no goods or merchandise of the growth or manufacture of Flanders be imported into England in the Marie.

By K.

Grant, during pleasure, to John Botiller, the king's servant, of the keeping of the castle of Wigelowe in Ireland, to hold himself or by deputy, with the wages, fees and profits acclamously accustomed.

By p.s.

Presentation of Richard Vincent to the prebend of Holyngho within the free chapel of St. Mary in the castle of Hastynge, in the diocese of Chichester, void by the resignation of Robert Chirbury, one of the chaplains of the king's chapel within the household.

By p.s.

Mandate to the dean and chapter of the free chapel of St. Mary in Hastynge castle, to admit Richard Vincent as prebendarie of Holyngho and assign him his stall in the choir and place in the chapter, he having been instituted by Simon, bishop of Chichester, on the king's presentation.