Membrane 8 cont.

1437.

July 13.
Sheen Manor.

Appointment, during pleasure, of Giles Thorndon, esquire, one of the ushers of the chamber, as treasurer of the land of Ireland, with such wages and fees as Thomas Strange, knight, the late treasurer, had: licence also for the said Giles to appoint a deputy whenever sent for by the king or council in England, or whenever the public good shall require his presence in England, for such periods of absence. By p.s.

July 12.
Kempton Manor.

General pardon, at the request of the king’s uncle Humphrey, duke of Gloucester, to John Shemyeld and Joyce, his wife, for all offences up to 21 January last. By p.s.

July 11.
Kempton Manor.

Grant, during pleasure, to Thomas Fitz Water, groom of the chamber, of the keeping of the king’s council house at Westminster above and beneath, which was of Joan, late queen of England, to hold himself or by deputy, with the accustomed wages, fees and profits in the same manner as John Burgh held the same. By p.s. 3755.

July 10.
Kempton Manor.

Ratification of the estate of Ralph, lord of Cromwell, in the offices of constable of Notingham Castle and keeper of the forest of Shirwode, with 20/ a year wages, and of the parks of Beskewode and Clypston, as being an estate for life with reference to previous letters patent on the subject dated 14 February last. By p.s. and for 1 mark paid in the hamaper.

June 17.
Westminster.

Licence, for 100s. paid in the hamaper, for Thomas Bromwych, Thomas Borgheope, Thomas de la Hay and Walter Mybbe to grant to John Talbot, knight, the elder, Ralph Cromnewell, knight, Christopher Talbot, knight, John Melton, knight, and Richard Legette and their heirs, the manor of Boulwes and Isombrugge, co. Salop, held in chief.

MEMBRANE 7.

Whereas Joan Northland, Hugh Byseley, Robert Skern and William Symond lately acquired to them and their heirs from Ralph Symond, kinsman and heir of William Calceby, clerk, the manor of Esthanney called ‘Phelberdes,’ co. Berks, held of the king in chief, and the said Robert Skern let the premises to farm for a term of years to Richard Doo, and afterwards released to the same, his heirs and assigns all his right in the manor and in the advowson of the chapel of St. James, Esthanney; and afterwards Richard granted the said manor and advowson to John Cottesmore, John Stopyndon, clerk, John Hyde, esquire, William Skern, Thomas Lusteyll, clerk, and Simon Roo, clerk, and their heirs; and the parties having successively entered, the said William Symond demised the premises to the said John Cottesmore, John Stopyndon, John Hyde, William Skern, Thomas Lusteyll and Simon Roo and their heirs, whereby they became seised, whereon he released to them, without the king’s licence obtained herein: the king, for 5 marks paid in the hamaper, has pardoned these trespasses and granted licence to the last demises to grant the premises to John Golafre, esquire, Thomas Fettiplace, esquire, Robert Burle, John Stokes and William Botiller and their heirs.

March 14.
Westminster.

Grant, during pleasure, to Richard Redmayn, late an esquire to John, duke of Bedford, of the office of master forester within the lordship of Kendale, to hold in person, with the accustomed wages and commodities; in lieu of a grant of the premises by letters patent of the said late duke, surrendered; provided the office be not of the king’s demesne. By p.s.