Membrane 2 — cont.

1437.

faithful departed and especially for the major part of the college to celebrate monthly with chanting exequies for departed souls; at which mass 3s. 4d. out of the issues of the church of Ippelpenne are to be distributed by the warden to the poor repairing there, and the surplus of the revenues of the church of Ippelpenne is to be distributed half to the warden and half to the other resident canonists: provided always that the college duly performs the above named charges and other divine services and works as shall be ordered by the said cardinal, John Frank and John Laurence or their executors by indentures to be made between them and the warden and college; and provided always that the vicarage of Ippelpenne be sufficiently endowed as required by statute.

Marginal note. De fine hisus licentiae.

Grant, for life, to Richard, earl of Warwick, of the office of constable of the king's castle of the town of Bristol, with the keeping of the forests of Kyngeswode and Fillewode, with the usual fees and wages by the hands of the mayor of Bristol, and the keeping of the forest and park of Gillyngham, co. Dorset etc. [as on p. 80 above].

By p.s.

1436.

Sept. 3.

Protection for the house of St. Katharine by the Tower of London, of like privilege with the free chapel of St. Martin le Grand, and appointment of Humphrey, duke of Gloucester, and the chancellor of England to rule and govern the said house, the revenues whereof have been wasted by misrule; saving in all things the rights of the queen of England for the time being.

By p.s.

1437.

April 7.

Grant, for life, to John Beauchamp, knight, one of the king's carvers, on surrender of letters patent dated 1 December last, of two tuns of red wine yearly at Bristol out of the king's first vintage by the hands of the chief butler of England or his deputy, in the same manner as William Porter, knight, had them.

By p.s.

July 8.

Licence for the foundation of an almshouse at Newelme.

Vacated because above [see p. 80].

By p.s.

1436.

Sept. 27.

Commission to John Danyell, master of the ship called le Trinite of London, to arrest the mariners required to take her to sea to resist the king's enemies.

The like to the following:—

John Poutram, master of a ship called le Thomas of London.
Robert Goslyn, master of a ship called le Gabriel of London.
John Rye, master of a ship called le George of London.
Simon Brambyll, master of a ship called le Marie of London.
John Tailour, master of a ship called le Marie of London.
William Coys, master of a ship called le Thomas of London.
John Danyell, master of a ship called le Trinite of London.

Memorandales 49th to 44th.

Commissions of the peace. [See Appendix.]