1437.
Sept. 19.  Grant, for life, to John Beauchamp, knight, one of the king’s carvers, of 60l. a year out of the fee farm of the town of Gloucester. By p.s. Mandate in pursuance to the bailiffs of the town.

Sept. 21.  Grant, for life, to John Hunte, one of the clerks of the chapel, for long service, of 10l. a year out of the revenues of the county of Kent. By p.s. Mandate in pursuance to the sheriff.

Oct. 5.  Presentation of Thomas Dauvson to the church of Sheryngton by Newport Panell, in the diocese of Lincoln.

Sept. 21.  Grant, during pleasure, to Robert Goscombe, groom of the almonry, of the office of warrener of the warren of Watlington, co. Oxford, to hold himself or by deputy, with the accustomed wages, fees and profits. By p.s.

July 14.  Grant, for life, to John Hanham, esquire, serjeant of the catering of the household, of the office of porter of the castle of Newcastle upon Tyne, to hold himself or by deputies, with the fees, wages and profits to the same appertaining by the hands of the sheriffs of Northumberland, as John Calverton lately held the same. Mandate in pursuance to the sheriff.

Oct. 12.  Revocation of the protection with clause columns granted for one year to Thomas Cosyn of London, ‘gentilman,’ as about to go to Picardy, there to abide in the company of Humphrey, duke of Gloucester, captain of the castle, town and march of Cała; because he tarries in the city of London and its suburbs, as the sheriffs have certified.

Oct. 17.  Presentation of Richard Pynchard, parson of the church of Eberston, in the diocese of York, to the chaplaincy of the chantry at the altar of St. Thomas the Martyr in the church of All Saints, Newcastle on Tyne, in the diocese of Durham, on an exchange of benefices with Thomas Eston.

Oct. 12.  Inspection and confirmation of letters patent under the seal of Ireland witnessed at Dublin by Thomas Stanley, knight, lieutenant of Ireland, 21 March, 13 Henry VI, appointing William Chevyr as second justice of the pleas before the king in Ireland, during good behaviour, with such fees and wages as Roger Hakenshawe, late second justice in the chief place of Ireland, received in the same office.

Nov. 11.  Presentation of John Couper, parson of the parish church of St. George, Southelingham, in the diocese of Norwich, to the parish church of Leyborn, in the diocese of Rochester, on an exchange of benefices with James Burbache.

MEMBRANE 34.

Oct. 13.  Grant, for life, to James Fenys, king’s esquire, of the manor of Wythiam called ‘Monkenecourt,’ with all lands, rents, services, pensions, portions, and other commodities belonging to the same or to the alien priory of Morsey and the advowson of Wythiam church, from 5 August last, rendering nothing therefor; notwithstanding that he has, by grant of the king, 40l. a year for life out of the fee farm of the manor of Het yogton, co. Oxford, and that the value of the said manor of Wythiam is not here expressed, John Hardwyk having surrendered letters patent dated 1 March, 11 Henry VI [see above pp. 77 and 79]. By p.s.

Vacated because surrendered, the king on 13 October, in his sixteenth year, with the consent of the within written John having granted to James Fenys the within written manor for life.