

Membrane 30—cont.

1437.
Oct. 25.
Sheen Manor. Grant, for life, to Thomas Beltoft, yeoman of the butlery, of the office of keeper and clerk of the king's hanaper in his chancery in Ireland, to hold himself or by deputy, with the accustomed wages, fees and profits.
By p.s.
- Oct. 16.
Sheen Manor. Grant, during good behaviour, to John Eyston, the king's servant, of the keeping of the king's way between the hill of Arblowe and the end of the town of Eton, co. Buckingham, to hold himself or by deputy, with the accustomed wages, fees and profits by the hands of the receivers or other occupiers of the lordship of Langley Marysse: in lieu of a grant surrendered as invalid, there being no mention by whom the wages should be paid.
By p.s.
- Oct. 8.
Westminster. Grant, during pleasure, to John Beauchamp, yeoman armourer of the body, of the dwelling with the chamber, kitchen and woodshed (focaria), in the workshop annexed to the same within the Tower of London, which Lewis, late yeoman armourer, had while alive.
By p.s. [3872.]
- Nov. 13.
Westminster. Whereas by inquisition taken before Alexander Hody, escheator in the county of Dorset, it was found that John Haket the elder, of the Isle of Wight, esquire, was seised in his demesne as of fee of a water-mill and a carucate of land in Bradepole, co. Dorset, held of the king in chief at the rent of 6s. 8d. yearly for all services, and that he demised the same to Stephen Haytefeld, esquire, still surviving, and Isabel, lady Lescrop, his wife, deceased, and her heirs, whereby they became seised, without the king's licence; and on her death the premises were taken into his hands; the king, for 1 mark paid in the hanaper has pardoned the trespass and granted licence to the said Stephen to have the premises again.
- Oct. 29.
Sheen Manor. Signification to Th. bishop of Worcester, of the royal assent to the election of Reginald Boulers, professor of theology and monk of the house of St. Peter, Gloucester, as abbot of that house.
By p.s.
- Nov. 23.
Westminster. Presentation of John Lee to the church of Laybourn, in the diocese of Rochester, void by the resignation of John Couper.
- Nov. 18.
Westminster. Licence for John Reynwell to ship 400 quarters of wheat and 100 quarters of beans bought within the counties of Lincoln and Norfolk, to London, for the victualling of that city; he having found sureties in Chancery, viz. John Rosekyn of London, grocer, and Robert Rauf of London, 'frutyrew,' each in a penalty of 200 marks that the goods shall not be taken to any other place, save under stress of accident, tempest or the enemy.

MEMBRANE 29.

- Nov. 11.
City of London. Grant, for life, to Edmund Hampden, esquire, the king's servant, of the manor of Estbekham, co. Norfolk, rendering nothing therefor, though it be of greater value than the 10 marks a year at which it is assessed by inquisition taken before John Roppeley, late escheator in the said county, and returned into the Exchequer; the manor having come into the king's hands through having been purchased in fee, without licence, by William Mariot, son of Walter Draper alias Welgate, an alien born in Fryseland, as by the said inquisition has been found.
