1437.

belonging as freely and fully as John, duke of Bedford, had them, as of the value of 100 marks a year; notwithstanding that he has 100 marks a year out of the issues of the counties of Cambridge and Huntingdon by grant of Henry IV, and 20L. a year, by the hands of the sheriffs or bailiffs of the city of Norwich, and one tun of wine yearly in the port of Ipswich by the hands of the king's butler, having bought from George Felbrigge his grant of the two last named.

Vacated because surrendered, the king on 10 June in his seventeenth year having commanded the bishop of Bath, his chancellor, to accept such surrender and cause the letters and their enrolment to be cancelled.

Nov. 28. Commission, during pleasure, to Geoffrey Knyveton, deputy of John Westminster. Ardern, clerk of the king's works, to take carpenters, labourers, masons, timber, shingles, tiles, boards, laths, lead, iron, glass and other requisites for the repair of Noytongham castle; also to sell the bark and branches of the trees to be cut down for this purpose, and account for the proceeds at the Exchequer.

MEMBRANE 18.

Dec. 22. Presentation of Christopher Strange to the church of Horspath, in the dioecese of Lincoln, void by the resignation of John Clohyde.

1438.

Jan. 1. Whereas John Greene, kins-man and heir of Thomas Buschop, 'clerk,' 1437.

belonging as freely and fully as John, duke of Bedford, had them, as of the value of 100 marks a year; notwithstanding that he has 100 marks a year out of the issues of the counties of Cambridge and Huntingdon by grant of Henry IV, and 20L. a year, by the hands of the sheriffs or bailiffs of the city of Norwich, and one tun of wine yearly in the port of Ipswich
by the hands of the king's butler, having bought from George Felbrigge his grant of the two last named.

Vacated because surrendered, the king on 10 June in his seventeenth year
having commanded the bishop of Bath, his chancellor, to accept such surrender and cause the letters and their enrolment to be cancelled.

Nov. 28. Commission, during pleasure, to Geoffrey Knyveton, deputy of John Westminster. Ardern, clerk of the king's works, to take carpenters, labourers, masons, timber, shingles, tiles, boards, laths, lead, iron, glass and other requisites for the repair of Noytongham castle; also to sell the bark and branches of the trees to be cut down for this purpose, and account for the proceeds at the Exchequer.

MEMBRANE 18.

Dec. 22. Presentation of Christopher Strange to the church of Horspath, in the dioecese of Lincoln, void by the resignation of John Clohyde.

1438.

Jan. 1. Whereas John Greene, kins-man and heir of Thomas Buschop, 'clerk,' lately granted to William Eode the elder, of Aston Underegge, and Agnes, his wife, since deceased, and to Ralph, their son, who survives, and the heirs of his body, a messuage and a virgate of land in Weston Underegg, held in chief, with remainders to William, brother of the said Ralph, and the heirs of his body; to Joan, his sister, and the heirs of her body; to Alice, her sister, and the heirs of her body; to Thomas Eode of Chepyngcampeden, and the heirs of his body; to Geoffrey Eode, his brother, and the heirs of his body; and to the right heirs of the said William Eode the elder; and the said William Eode, the father of Ralph, and Agnes, because seised as of fee-tail without the king's licence; the king for ½ mark paid in the hanaper has pardoned the trespass done in that behalf.

1438.

Jan. 1. Presentation of Robert Chaplen to the parish church of Llankoyldmar, co. Cardygan, in the dioecese of St. David's, void by the resignation of Richard Caunton.

1437.

Nov. 16. The king has understood from a petition presented to him, that certain lords of the council were desired to entreat with Rose Merston to consent to marry according to the king's intent, and that, on her showing herself obedient, the king granted her his good and gracious lordship, insomuch that it was enacted by advice of the lords of the council in the chamber at Westminster appointed for the king's councils, that John Merston, king's