1438.
Presentation of Richard Bate, parson of the church of Bynton, in the diocese of Worcester, to medieties of the churches of Milton and Colyntre, in the diocese of Lincoln, on an exchange of benefices with John Tuwe.

1437.
Whereas by the petition of Thomas Nune of Aspall, co. Suffolk, one of the constables of that town, it appears that on Thursday after Midsummer last, he and Thomas atte Hille, his fellow constable, would have arrested on suspicion of felony one John Bungel alias John Chaumbre, a stranger in that county wandering with a certain fardele; and that the said John resisted and with a sword struck William Nume, brother of the petitioner, whereof he immediately died; and thereupon petitioner hit the said John hard on the head with a staff so that he died within two days, for which matter the petitioner has been indicted by certain of his enemies in the county of Suffolk: the king pardons him for the slaying of the said John and any consequent outlawry. By p.s.

1438.
Appointment of William Brownyng to have the marriage of Thomas, son and heir of Robert Baynam, late tenant in chief, paying for the same 100 marks in hand at the Receipt of the Exchequer.
By bill of the treasurer.

Presentation of John Holme, chaplain, to the chantry which John Thorp, deceased, the last incumbent, held when alive in the castle of Pikeryng, in the diocese of York.

Appointment of Richard Hendy for life as one of the king's yeomen-workers in the office of the tailor in the great wardrobe, with the proper fees, wages, rewards and clothing by the hands of the keeper of the said wardrobe; provided always that he receive no other fees, wages, rewards or clothing, by virtue of any letters of privy seal previously granted for payment or livery of the same, and that this grant be not made a precedent for those who may come after him. By p.s. [1019.]

Mandate in pursuance to the keeper of the great wardrobe.
The like grant to George Asshton.
The like mandate.

Revocation of the protection granted for one year on 6 July last to Richard Louth of York, as having gone to France in the company of Richard, earl of Warwick; because he tarry in the county of York, as the sheriff has certified.

Commission to John Goules to take carpenters, stonecutters, masons, tilers, smiths and other workmen and labourers, for the repair of the king's manors of Wodestoke and Bekley and the castle of Walyngford; also to provide timber, iron, lead, glass, laths, shingles, boards, and other necessary materials. By bill of John Ardern, clerk of the king's works.

May 1. Westminster.
Commission to John Clerc, as above, for the repair of the manors of Chilternlangley and Havercyng atte Bourc and the castle of Gloucester.
By bill of the clerk of the works.

Commission to Philip Gorton to take carpenters, stonecutters, smiths, tilers and other artizans, workmen and labourers required for a room in the castle of Walyngford, which the king has ordered to be built for the safe-keeping of prisoners.

Jan. 15. Easthampstead Manor.
Grant, for life, to Nicholas Strange wayes, of the office of chief chamberlain of the exchequer of Ireland, with such wages, fees and rewards as Henry Strange wayes, his father, had in the same; in lieu of a like grant dated 20 October, 9 Henry VI, surrendered.
By p.s.