the said year as follows: £572l. 19s. 4d. out of the issues, revenues and profits arising from the lordships, lands and possessions of the castles, shires, honours, manors, towns, farms, offices, fees, fees, fee-farms, forests, fees of castle guards and bailiwicks of Richemund in the counties of York, Lincoln and Nottingham; from the manors or lordships of Stretton and Merston Meysy, co. Wilts, and the manor or lordship of Hampstede Marshall, co. Berks: £326l. 5s. 4d. to the said duke and to Thomas Cheryton, bishop of Bangor, and Walter Sheryngton, clerk, his nominees to his own use, out of the revenues of the manors, lordships, lands and possessions of Cheshyrbury, Brighton Deverell and Hungerford in the counties of Wilts and Berks, Qwachelley, co. Southampton, Esthenrith, co. Berks, Cotcestord, Wantyng, Icham and Goryng mill. co. Oxford, Bedlowe, co. Buckingham, Blakenham, co. Suffolk, Preston and Hoo, co. Sussex, Totyingbek, co. Surrey, Lesyburgh, and Estwrotham, co. Norfoke, and 52s. of rent in London, in the king's hands by reason of the death of John, duke of Bedford, as parcel of the priory of Okebourne, co. Wilts, and from the issues of the lordship of Monkestoef, co. Norfolk; and 184l. 5s. 1d., residue, to the same duke and nominees, out of the issues of the keeping, pensions, portions, apprets, rents, annuities, farms, fruits, tithes and possessions of the following priories and places, viz. from the alien priories of Crcnion and Everdon in the counties of Suffolk and Northampton and Sporle, from the pensions of the priory of Horsham and of the abbey of Sawtre, from the apports of the alien priories of Tykford by Newport Paynell and Folkeston, from the keeping of the alien priories (sic) of Mynstrellovell, of the lands and rents of the alien abbey of Lacene and of the lands, rents and possessions in Wilts belonging to the deanery of Morteyn, from the keeping of the priory of Leomynster, of the alien manor of Carent (sic) Lounston, co. Dorset, of the fruits and profits of the church of Starmynster Marchall, co. Dorset, of certain lands in Charleton in the same county, from the keeping of the administration of the fruits and profits of the church of Dokkyng, parcel of Mynstrellovell, from the keeping of the administration of the fruits and profits of the church of Upchurc, co. Kent, from the keeping of the manor of Charleton, co. Wilts, the two last having belonged to the alien abbot of l'le Dieu, from the keeping of the alien priories of Lymton, Cogges and Stretfeldsay, from the yearly farms which the prior of Farleigh will pay for the keeping of the priories of Clatford and Stokurey in the counties of Somerset and Dorset (sic) and St. Helen's, Isle of Wight, co.
Southampton, from the keeping of the priory of the new abbey by Abberbury, co. Salop, from the appor of the priory of Wenlok, from the keeping of the priories of Romphey, co. Kent, and St. Clears, co.
Gloucester (sic), and from the farm of the prior of Suthwyk, co.
Southampton. Should any of the premises have been previously granted for life or in fee or charged in any way, or be part of the duchy of Lancaster, or be insufficient in value, the said duke shall have compensation where he will, and he shall have all writs and warrants necessary for obtaining payment.

Release to Henry, cardinal of England, John, archbishop of York, Ralph de Cumwelle, knight, and Robert Whityngham, some of the executors of John, late duke of Bedford, from any claim which the king might have against them by reason of any liability of the said late duke to account to the king; and the like release to Lewis, archbishop of Rouen, former bishop of Terouanne, John Fastol, knight, and Andrew Ogard, knight, other executors, on condition that they account for the testator's estate to the four first named. [Federa.]