Nov. 25. Westminster.

Membrane 26—cont.

1438.

port of Lynne, and to Richard Pegge, receiver of the duchy of Lancaster, to provide corn for the king's store, viz. wheat, rye (siliquis), barley, beans, peas and other grain.

Revocation of the protection with clause column, for half a year, granted on 24 October last to Luke Senraugh, citizen and tailor of London, as going to Calais in the company of Thomas Rempston, knight, lieutenant of that town; because he tarries in London and its suburbs, as the sheriffs have certified.

Nov. 23. Easthamstead Manor

Grant to Henry, cardinal of England, that after he obtain payment of the 2,000l. due to him from the king, he shall continue to hold the port of Southampton until he have had repayment of the 4,000l. which he has lent to the king out of the issues of the duchy of Lancaster, with the assent of his co-feoffees of the said duchy: and if such repayment be not had within the time in which, by authority of Parliament, the said port is charged to pay the customs and subsidies whereof he ought to be paid, the treasurer of England shall make him other sufficient assignment.

Assignment, by advice of the council, to the same cardinal, of the port of Southampton to be held in continuation of the previous grant to him of the customs and subsidies thereof for repayment of his loan to the king, until he shall thereby have had repayment of the 2,000l. which he has lent the king besides the loan above mentioned.

Licence, by advice of the council, for him to ship 300 sacks of wool, paying thereon custom, subsidy and all other dues, from the same port to any destination he pleases, any statutes to the contrary notwithstanding.

Nov. 21. Westminster.

Whereas by inquisition taken before William Whaplode late escheator in the county of Buckingham, it was found that John Neville, since deceased, being seised in his demesne as of fee of the manor of Gotehirst and of the advowson of Gotehirst church, in that county, held of the king by fee, by the name of John Nevill of Gotehirst, esquire, granted the premises, without royal licence, amongst other things, to Thomas Widevill, since deceased, and to William Tresham, Thomas Compewth, John Loughton, and Richard Whollaghby, esquires, who survive, their heirs and assigns; and on the death of the said John Nevyle and by reason of this trespass the premises were taken into the king's hands, the king, for 7 marks paid in the hanaper, has pardoned the trespass and grants licence to the said surviving grantees to have the premises again as aforesaid.

Mandate to the escheator in the county of York to deliver the temporalities of the monastery of St. Mary without the walls of York to brother John Cotyngham, late prior of the house, whose election as abbot has been confirmed by John, archbishop of York, and whose fealty has been commanded to be taken by Th. bishop of Hereford. By p.s.

The like to Nicholas Usflete, mayor of York and escheator in that city. To the mayor of Lincoln, escheator in that city.

And to the escheaters in the following counties:—

Cambridge. Cumberland and Westmoreland.

Norfolk and Suffolk. Lincoln.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants of the abbey.