1439.

Membrane 12—cont.

and chaplains of the perpetual college or chantry, to be called the chantry of St. George, which he is about to found, with the king's licence, in the parish of Wy, co. Kent, and for the master and chaplains to appropriate the said church of Newtown. [Monasticon, No. II, but see part 2, m. I.]

By p.s.

March 19.
Westminster.

Commission to R. bishop of Chichester, Robert Ponynges, knight, Reginald de la Warre, knight, Roger Fienes, knight, and J. Sydeney, the younger, to treat with one another and with other persons of Sussex, for a notable loan to the king in his present necessity, and to convey the money lent with all speed to the Receipt of the Exchequer, with full power to promise lenders all necessary security, out of the customs, subsidies and other royal revenues, and out of the jewels and other moveables of the king and his crown: the king engaging that all needful letters patent, writs, tallies and other warrants shall be issued in their behalf in accordance with the Act of the last Parliament at Westminster.

By C.

The like to the following in the following counties:—

W. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield. Humphrey, earl of Stafford, Roger Aston, knight, Hugh Erdeswyk.

John, duke of Norfolk, the prior of Norwich, Robert Wyllghby, knight, John Radelyf, knight.

The abbot of St. Albans. Philip Thornbury, knight, John Hotoft, John Fray.

The abbots of Shrewsbury, William Burley, Richard Wyndeslowe, Hugh Cresset.

The abbot of Ramsey. Nicholas Stuceley, knight, — Stonham, — Benvyll, Walter Taillard.

The prior of Ely. Richard Caudry, clerk, the archdeacon of Ely, Laurence Chwayne, William Almyngton the younger.

The abbot of Warden, the archdeacon of Bedford, Roger Hunte, John Broughton.

The dean of Lincoln cathedral. John Beaumond, knight, Thomas Cumberworth, knight, Robert Roos, knight, Thomas Meres.

John Constable, knight, Robert Constable, knight, Robert Ughtred, knight, Robert Rolleston, clerk, the Provost of Beverley, John Portyngey.

T. bishop of Hereford. James Daddeley, knight, the prior of Hereford, the dean of Hereford.

The abbot of Nutteley, the archdeacon of Buckingham.