Grant, for life, to John Beauchamp, knight, one of the king's squires, of the office of constable of the castle of Rotheland, co. Flynt, to hold himself or by deputy, with 10l. a year wages and any other accustomed fees and profits, as John Saintlo, one of the esquires, attendant on the king's person, had, in lieu of a grant thereof to the said Saintlo, surrendered.

By p.s.

Licence, for 100s. paid in the hamaper, for Thomas Lumley, knight, to grant to Marmaduke, bishop of Carlisle, William Lumley, John Holme and William Cuthbert and their heirs one eighth of the manor of Kirkby in Kendale, held in chief, except half an acre of land.

Whereas by the petition of William Munde it appears that Ralph Spayne of London, 'tapicer,' Robert Asshebourne of London, 'fruterer,' and Robert Aceman of London, 'wolleman,' are bound in 200l. under a certain condition to him and John Elsy of London, 'brewer,' and through the outwary of the latter the whole sum of the bond, although originally due to him only and not to Elsy, is by the vigour of the law forfeited to the king, whom the said condition cannot bind, to his final destruction without the king's grace; the king, considering that the said forfeiture is a matter in conscience, grants the said bond to petitioner, authorising him to appoint an attorney to sue on it in the king's name, and granting to him its amount with any costs and damages, when recovered.

By p.s.

Exemption, for life, of William Holt of London, 'mercer,' in consideration of his having been deaf for a long time, from being put on assizes, juries, attaints, recognitions or inquisitions and from being made trier of such as mayor, sheriff, escheator, coroner or justice, or collector, assessor, taxer, surveyor, constable or controller of any taxes or arrayer or trier of men at arms, habeleurs or archers, or any other officer, bailiff or minister of the king, against his will.

By p.s.

Grant, during good behaviour, to Richard Ludlowe of the office of the tronage and pesage of woods in the port of Southampton, to hold himself or by deputy; in lieu of a grant thereof during pleasure, surrendered; notwithstanding that he has the keeping of Henley park and the office of Bagshot Bailly.

By p.s.

Grant, for life, to Thomas Newton, esquire, serjeant of the cellar, for good service to the king's father and to the king, of a tun of wine yearly in the port of London by the hands of the butler of England or his deputy; notwithstanding that he has 6l. a year out of the lichenage of cloth in the county of Salop.

By p.s.

Licence, by advice of the council, for John, duke of Norfolk, going on embassy to Calais and the marches of Picardy to treat of a peace between the king and his adversary of France, to take with him out of the realm gold and silver, vessels of the same, and jewels, to the amount of 2,000 marks.

By p.s.

Grant to William Drayton, clerk, of the free chapel of Bothecote or Botelhaute, in the parish of Witton and diocese of Norwich, void by the resignation of John Forster, last warden.