18 HENRY VI.—PART 1.

Membrane 19 cont.

Nov. 9.
Westminster

Revocation of the protection with clause columns for one year, granted on 13 February last, to Hugh Rydelake of London, habordaysshe, as going to Ireland, there to abide in the company of Lee, lord of Welles, lieutenant of that land; because he tarries in the city of London and its suburbs, as the sheriffs have certified.

Nov. 4.
Windsor Castle.

Appointment, during good behaviour, of Thomas Gloucestre, esquire, to be receiver general of the duchy of Cornwall in Cornwall, Devon and the rest of England, to hold the office himself or by deputy from Michaelmas in the eighteenth year, with such wages, rewards and profits as Robert Whitingham had.

By p.s.

Nov. 11.
Westminster.

Licence for Stephen Brown, citizen and grocer of London, on his own recognisances in 100L, to buy 500 quarters of wheat and other grain in the counties of York and Lincoln, and convey it to London by land or water. The like in the counties of Kent and Sussex.

Windsor Castle.

Grant, for life, to John Stoughton, of the office of feodary of the honour of Richmond in the counties of Lincoln and Nottingham, to hold himself or by deputy, with the accustomed wages, fees and profits. Grant to him also of all the king’s sheriffs’ tourns and views of frankpledge within the king’s honour, lordship and fee of Richmond in the said counties, with waifs, strays, assize of bread and ale and other appurtenant profits and the liberties of infangthef and outfangthef, the chantels of felons, fugitives and outlaws as fully as John, late duke of Bedford, or Ralph, earl of Westmorland, or anyone else formerly had the same, rendering to the king therefor the true yearly value as found by account to be audited yearly at Boston or elsewhere in the said counties. Grant to him also that, as bailiff of the said honour, he shall, by his deputy, have the return and execution of all writs of assize within the said honour and fee, rendering nothing therefor and receiving on his account such fees and wages as previous bailiffs have had from the said duke, notwithstanding that the same John Stoughton has the office of customer and collector of the 1St. due to the king on the weight of each sack of wool and woollens exported from Calais; in lieu of a grant thereof, for life, to John Breknok, surrendered.

Kempton Manor.

_Inspectimus and confirmation to William de Biggynges, clerk, of letters patent (French) of John, late duke of Bedford, dated at London, 12 December, 13 Henry IV, and provision for the issue of letters current of liberate to the ministers of the lordship of Kendale, and letters dormant of allocate to the treasurer, barons and auditors of the Exchequer, for payment of the arrears of the rent of 10 marks, hereinafter mentioned, from the date of the duke’s death until that of the assignment of dower to Jacquetta, late his wife, and for payment thenceforth of the two thirds of the same rent for which the king is liable as being the said duke’s heir. The said late duke by his said letters patent granted for life to the said William the chantry or free chapel of St. Maribolme in the water of Wyanaundemere, co. Westmoreland, with its appurtenant lands, rents, services, fisheries, commons of pasture and other profits, and 10 marks of rent from the lordship of Kendale, payable at Whitsuntide and Martinmas, provided that it has been usually paid to William’s predecessors in the chantry; in lieu of a grant thereof in like terms by Philippa, late duchess of Ireland, surrendered._

By p.s. and for 1 mark paid in the hanaper.
