Nov. 28. Westminster.

Letters of marque and reprisals in favour of John Churche, citizen and mercer of London, on his complaint that his ship called la Margarite de Clarence laden with his goods to the value of 532l. 13s. 4d. while on her voyage to England was attacked by an armed and hostile vessel of Mont St. Michel in Normandy, and, after long fighting, a vessel of St. Malo in Brittany came to aid the Norman, and at last took the Margarite and brought her to St. Malo, and had their will of the cargo, which was kept and distributed; and although the king has often sent letters of privy seal to his cousin the duke of Brittany to require redress, no redress is obtainable or at any rate the giving of it has been unreasonably delayed.
