300 marks worth of land. Now the said last mentioned demisors only once looked at the said will, and superficially when four or five of them at most were present, and did not notice the provision that the said Elizabeth was to decide whether she would marry or live chaste within one year of the testator's decease, and consequently they did not inform her of the contents of the will within the said period, during which according to their belief she lived unmarried and then was wedded with the consent of her mother (sic) the said late duke, Walter Beauchamp and Ralph, to the said Thomas Swynford.

By K.

Membrane 2 (cont.)

Grant, for life, to Nicholas Strangways, of the 10l. a year out of the fee farm of the city of Waterford in Ireland, which John Radclyf, knight, has been receiving under letters patent of Henry IV, made to him in the name of John, son of James Radclyf, esquire, surrendered. By p.s.

Grant, for life, to Fulk Vernon, esquire, of the office of bailiff of the wapentake of Morleyston and Lukchrche, co. Derby, to hold himself or by deputy, with the accustomed wages, fees and profits, as John Sheldford, esquire, had when alive; notwithstanding that the said Fulk has the keepership of Shotil park with 2d. a day wages. By p.s.

Licence for William Mytron of London, 'fyshhemonger,' on the mainprize of himself and John atte Wode of London, 'fyshhemonger,' each in 100l., to ship 60 quarters of wheat and 300 quarters of barley, bought in Norfolk and Suffolk, from the port of Great Jernemuth to London; after paying custom, subsidy and other dues.

Grant, in survivorship, to John Saintlo, one of the esquires attending about the king's body, and to Nicholas Saintlo, his son, from the day of the death of Richard late earl of Warwick, of the office of constable of the castle of Bristol with the keeping of the forests of Kyngeswode, co. Gloucester, and Filwode, co. Somerset, and of the forest and park of Gyllinglyham, co. Dorset, to hold themselves or by deputy; in lieu of a grant thereof to the former by letters patent, surrendered; to hold as fully as Hugh Luterell, knight, or any other of their predecessors had them.

Mandate, in pursuance to the mayor, bailiffs, farmers and occupiers or receivers of the town of Bristol to pay the said John and Nicholas their wages with any arrears.

MEMBRANE 1

Grant, for life, to William de la Pole, earl of Suffolk, Alice his wife, and William Phelip, knight, of the offices of constable of the castle of Walingford and steward of the honours of Walingford and St. Valery, and of the four hundreds and a half of Chilterne, to hold themselves or by deputy, as from Michaelmas last; in lieu of a grant thereof to the said earl and William by letters patent, surrendered. By p.s.

Pardon to Edmund Hakeluyt, son of Thomas Hakeluyt, who was indicted on Sunday before St. Mary Magdalene, 15 Henry VI, at Penbrugge, co. Hereford, before Roger Heynes, coroner of the county, upon view of the body of Richard Wilton of having struck the said