Grants to William Whaplode, Nicholas Clopton and John Faryndon, their heirs and assigns, of the advowson of the church of Great Bilyng, co. Northampton, in exchange for an acre of land in Eton, co. Buckingham, and the advowson of the church of the same town. By K.

Appointment of Thomas Bekynton, clerk, and James Fenys, esquire, as the king's attorneys to receive in his name from William Whaplode, Nicholas Clopton and John Faryndon seisin of one acre of arable land lying in Lynesroffe in 'le Suthfelde' in Eton, co. Buckingham, between land of John Water on the north and land of the king on the south, and reaching from land of the king on the west to the high road from Eton to 'le Wyle' on the east, together with the advowson of the church of the same town, such seisin to be made to the king, his heirs and assigns. By K.

The like of the same to receive from Hugh Aylewyn alias Dyer seisin as above of two tenements in Eton, co. Buckingham, whereof one was sometime of Richard Knyght and the other of William Haryes, lying between the graveyard of Eton church on the south and land sometime of Walter Clay on the north and reaching from the highway to Windsor on the west to a garden sometime of John Huntercombe on the east. By K.

Appointment, during pleasure, of Henry, archbishop of Canterbury, John, bishop of Bath and Wells, John, bishop of St. Asaph, William bishop of Salisbury, William, earl of Suffolk, John Somerset, Thomas Bekynton, clerk, John Hampton and James Fenys, esquires, to fulfill the king's intent and will, to the keeping of all priories, possessions and portions of aliens in England to whatsoever foreign religious houses belonging, which are in the king's hands at present; and grant to them also of rents, farms, issues and profits of all such priories etc., as are in the hands of farmers or tenants for term of life or years; and of all apports, pensions and portions sometime belonging to the said houses abroad, and now of the king, to hold from Easter last, and the said grantees shall also have the premises so in the hands of farmers, or others as these fall in. By K.

Grant to the king's clerk Henry Faukes, chaplain, of the prebend of Wartlyng, Nenefeld and Ilo in the free chapel of Hastynges. By K.

Mandate in pursuance to the dean and chapter of the chapel.

Pardon to Richard Kendale of Lostwythyll, co. Cornwall, 'gentilman,' for the death of Edmund Pery, chaplain, and of any consequent outlawry; the king being informed that the said Edmund with others on 24 August last lay in ambush at Lostwythyll to murder Stephen Kendale, Christina, his wife, and the said Richard, and smote the said Christina on the head with a baselard, and severely beat and wounded the said Stephen, whereupon the said Richard in defence of himself and his father and mother, struck the said Edmund on the outer side of the thigh, whereof he died. By p.s.

19 HENRY VI—I. PART 1.