Grant, for life, to the king's serjeant John Parc, one of the clerks of the accounts of the king's counting-house within the household, of the office of bailiff of the honour of Peverell Fee within the counties of Bedford, Buckingham, Northampton and Leicester, to hold himself or by deputy, with the usual wages, fees and profits, as William Seymour, deceased, held the same.

By p.s. and of the said date by authority of Parliament.

Sept. 3.
Dogmersfield.
Revocation of the protection with clause columnus, for one year, granted on 4 December last to Thomas Spede alias Thomas Speed, 'fisshemonger' of London, alias of Suffolk, 'yoman,' as staying in the company of John, earl of Huntingdon, lieutenant of the duchy of Aquitaine, on the safe keeping and victualling of those parts; because he tarries in the city of London and the suburbs thereof, as the sheriffs of London have certified.

Sept. 2.
Dogmersfield.
Signification to W. bishop of Salisbury of the royal assent to the election of Christina Codeford, nun of the house of Wilton, as abbess of that place.

By K.

Sept. 5.
Dogmersfield.
Grant, in survivorship, to the king's servants William Styde and Thomas Quyne, of the occupation of 'wyndrawers' and the carriage of all wine to London as far as 'les Wharves' of the merchants owning the said wine, to hold themselves or by deputy, charging the merchants no more than has been usual hitherto.

By p.s. etc.

Sept. 4.
Dogmersfield.
Confirmation for life to Henry Hertson for good service in the wars in France and to the king in England, with the assent of William, earl of Suffolk, of the office of clerk of the justice of the counties of Cheshire and Flynt and of North Wales with the keeping of the rolls, writs, memoranda and bills and with the chamber and lower Exchequer within 'le Shirehalle' at Chester and the tower called 'Mayshams Toure,' with the houses thereto belonging within the castle of Chester, for the keeping of the said rolls etc. and the habitation of the clerk from of old, and other places for the like keeping and habitation within North Wales, to hold himself or by deputies, granted to him by William de la Pole, earl of Suffolk, justice of the counties of Cheshire and Flynt and of North Wales, during the earl's life, taking the fees, wages and rewards accustomed.

By p.s. etc.