Membrane 22—cont.

1441. Nov. 28.
Westminster.

Grant, for life, to the king's serjeant David Moleyns of 15l. yearly issuing from the manor of Rodeswell, co. Essex, received of late by Richard Stucle, esquire, deceased.

Vacated because surrendered, the king on 10 February in the present year having granted the said 15l. to William Beauchamp, king's knight, one of the king's carers (trenchatorum) for life.

Membrane 21.

Nov. 3.
Westminster.

Insperimns and confirmation of a writing of John Chapman of Cales dated at Cales, 5 September, 19 Henry VI, setting forth that whereas Henry IV by letters patent dated 20 August in his third year confirmed to John Piers sometime of Cales a void plot of land in the parish of St. Mary, Cales, between Shewestrete towards the east and the tenement of Richard Wideville, esquire, towards the west and the land which John Baxter sometime held towards the north and the messuage which John Sprot held of late towards the south, in length from east and west 46 ft. 4 inches and in breadth from south to north 33ft., to hold to him, his heirs and assigns for 60 years, rendering yearly to the king 3s. 4d., which plot John Piers, a burgess of Cales, bequeathed in his will to William Clyifton and Margaret his wife, daughter of John, to hold to them and their heirs and assigns to the end of the same term; and afterwards Margaret in her widowhood granted and by her charter confirmed the same to the said John Chapman and John Maxfield, deceased, to hold in survivorship to them, their heirs and assigns to the end of the same term at the same rent;—John Chapman has granted the plot to Robert Brampton, burgess of Cales, and Joan his wife, their heirs and assigns to the end of the same term; witnessed by Robert Clyderowe, then mayor of Cales, Thomas Downe, Reynold Langham, Walter Palgrave and Robert Crede, then aldermen, and many others; and grant thereof to the said Robert and Joan, their heirs and assigns for ever, rendering to the king yearly 3s. 4d.

By p.s. etc.

Nov. 23.
Westminster.

Presentation of William Wobourne, clerk, to the church of Stretham, in the diocese of Winchester, void by the free resignation of John Billette.

Nov. 22.
Westminster.

The like of Master Thomas Wey, master of arts, to one of two chantries founded by Henry V in the chapel of St. Mary within the cathedral church of Cicestre, void by the death of Master Robert Cotman; directed to the dean and chapter.

By p.s. etc.

Oct. 10.
Westminster.

Grant, for life, to Richard Whelar, carpenter, of the office of warden of the king's carpenters at Shene manor and elsewhere, taking such daily wages by the hands of the clerk of the works, as William Lyes, carpenter and warden in the time of Henry V, had in his lifetime, with such livery of vesture yearly at Christmas as the serjeants in the office of the works receive by the hands of the wardrober.

By p.s. etc.

Nov. 22.
Westminster.

Pardon to Stephen Praty of Fornsete, co. Norfolk, 'laborer,' indicted before Robert Randes, one of the coroners in the county, touching the death of Roger Broundale on view of his body, of having on 29 December in the twelfth year met with the said Roger at Tacolveston, co. Norfolk, in a place called 'Gannestoft'; and, they conversing together, a quarrel arose, and Roger accused Stephen of being a false thief and assaulted and