The like to John Lidgate, monk of Bury St. Edmunds, and John Baret, esquire, of 7l. 13s. 4d. yearly from Easter in the eighteenth year out of the issues of the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk by the hand of the sheriffs thereof; in lieu of a grant to the former by letters patent dated 7 May in the eighteenth year, surrendered.

Grant, for life, to John Felton, page of the chamber, of the office of constable of the castle of Newcastle upon Tyne with a parcel of meadow enclosed within the water of Tyne and the herbage thereof otherwise called the mowing (falcarium) of the king's meadow, worth not more than 50s. yearly, to hold himself or by deputy from 3 December in the eighteenth year with the fees, wages, profits and commodities thereto belonging; provided always that he answer at the Exchequer touching the surplus; in lieu of a grant thereof by letters patent of that date, surrendered.

Grant for life to Thomas Est, yeoman of the crown, of a pipe of wine yearly, when it reaches the port of Bristol.

Whereas Laurence Downe granted to William Asshurst, Thomas Slyfield, John Chamberlayn and Richard Asshurst 40 acres of land, 4 acres of wood and 120 acres of pasture in Mikelham, co. Surrey, held in chief, to hold to them, their heirs and assigns from Michaelmas in the thirteenth year for a hundred years, and they entered therein without licence:—the king, for 2 marks paid in the hanaper, has pardoned the trespass herein and granted to them licence to hold the premises.

Manumission of William Stile, born bondman appendant to the manor of Langelee Marys, co. Buckingham.

Insperimus and confirmation to the abbot and convent of St. Mary, Mirevall, of letters patent dated 15 March, 22 Richard II, and grant to them and their successors that they be not bound to pay to the king any corody or pension during voidances, and quitclaim to them of all the king's right herein. By p.s. etc., and for 1 mark paid in the hanaper.

Grant to Thomas, bishop of Norwich, and his successors that in any collection of a tenth or other subsidy or quota granted hereafter to the king by the clergy of the province of Canterbury in convocation they appoint a spiritual person of their diocese to collect the same within the diocese and certify his name to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer notwithstanding other letters patent of exemption to that person, who shall answer to the king therefor; and they shall not be bound to appoint any other person.

Confirmation to John Hampton, esquire for the body, and William Tresham of letters patent dated 22 September last granting to them the keeping of all the lands, rents and services late of Thomas Wodehill, esquire, during the minority of John, his son and heir; and grant further to them of any farm or farms which John Cornewaill, lord Fawnehop, knight, or any other paid to the king during the minority of the said John, son and heir of Thomas Wodehill, esquire, alias Thomas Wodehull, baron of Wodehull, to hold from the death of Thomas till the heir's coming of age.

Mandate to John Cornewaill, lord Fawnehop, knight, or any other who paid the farm or farms to deliver the same to the said John Hampton and William Tresham.