membrane 7—cont.

Licence for William Tirwhit, knight, to found a hospital in honour of Our Lord and St. John the Baptist in a chapel and divers messuages on some ground of his containing 6 acres of land in Glaumfordbrigge in the parish of Wraub, co. Lincoln, built by him of late, of two chaplains to celebrate divine service daily for the good estate of the king and William and for their souls after death and for the souls of Henry V, Robert Tirwhit and Alice his wife, parents of William, and of other his ancestors and children, and of seven poor men continually resident in the said hospital to pray daily in like manner; and for the chaplains and poor men to be called brethren of the hospital of William Tirwhit, knight, in Glaumfordbrigge in the parish of Wraub, and for one of the chaplains to be warden and have the rule; and grant that they be capable of pleading and of being impleaded in any courts and of acquiring lands, rents, services and other possessions of any persons, and that they have a common seal; licence further for the said William to found a chantry of one chaplain in a chapel built of late by him in honour of St. Edward at Higham in the parish of Welcombstowe, co. Essex, and another chantry of one chaplain at the altar of the Holy Trinity in the collegiate church of Beverley, co. York, to celebrate divine service daily for the estates and souls aforesaid; licence also for him to grant to the said hospital the