1442.
March 15. Westminster.

Grant in survivorship to Richard Parker and John Penycok, yeoman of the crown and robes, of the office of parker of the park of Byflete with the keeping of the warren there, to hold themselves or by deputies, with the usual wages, fees and profits, and of 5 marks yearly out of the issues and profits of Byflete manor; in lieu of a grant thereof to the former by letters patent of Henry V, confirmed by the king, surrendered. By K. etc.

March 24. Westminster.

The like to William James and Henry Bamastre, of the office of the constableship of the castle of Carlisle by the marches of Scotland, to hold themselves or by deputies, with the usual wages, fees and profits.

By p.s. etc.

Commission to Master Ralph Prestbury, doctor in decrees, Master William Howeper and Master John Bateeman, doctors of laws, John Belchamp, bachelor of laws, Richard Quattramays, John Melbourne, Stephen Foster, Baldwin Poteler, John Segarre and William Hulyn to hear the appeal of Thomas Chapman of Wodeham Feriys against the definitive sentence of Richard Mannyng, commissary of John, earl of Huntingdon, admiral of England, in a maritime cause between Thomas Pompe and the said Thomas Chapman touching the sale of a boat called le Marge by the latter to the former.

Grant, during good behaviour, to Thomas Moorslawe of the keeping of the smaller piece of the seal of the statute merchant for the recognizance of debts at Newcastle-upon-Tyne, with the usual fees.

By p.s. etc.

March 24. Westminster.

Whereas Thomas Hert of Derthington, co. York, 'yeoman,' and Richard Hert of Ripon, his son, on Wednesday after the Nativity of St. Mary in the fifteenth year were indicted at Derthington before Edmund Norrmville, one of the coroners in the county, on view of the body of Stephen de Craven, on a charge that the said Thomas commanded Richard to strike Stephen, and Richard with others lay in wait for him at Derthington on 6 September in the same year and with swords and knives wounded him, Richard striking him with a sword between the shoulders, whereof he lay sick till the day of the indictment and then died, of which felony Thomas and Richard are, as is said, guiltless;—the king at the instance of his kinsman, the earl of Dorset, has pardoned the said Richard for the felony and any consequent outlawry.

By p.s. etc.

Feb. 15. Westminster.

Signification to H. archbishop of Canterbury of the royal assent to the election in the hospital of St. Mary the Virgin of the Augustinian order of Brethren Hospitalers, Dover, in the diocese of Canterbury, of John Wollys, brother of that hospital, to be master thereof.