Membrane 1—cont.

_Inspeiximus_ and confirmation, by advice of the lords spiritual and temporal and the commonalty of England in the Parliament held at Westminster in the king's first year, to John Stoghton, of (1) letters of patent of confirmation dated 4 May, 21 Edward III. [Calendar, 1345-1348, p. 373.]

(2) A charter of the same date [ibid. p. 529].

(3) A charter of the same date [ibid. p. 538]. By K. & C. in Parl.

May 9. Sheen Manor.

Grant, for life, to John Robynson, for good service to John, duke of Bedford, and the king, that he be one of the four messengers of the Receipt of the Exchequer, taking 44d. a day at the Exchequer; in lieu of a like grant thereof to Nicholas Auncell by Richard II, confirmed by Henry IV, Henry V, and the king, surrendered. By K. etc.

May 29. Windsor Castle.

Whereas the king's great uncle Henry, cardinal of England, bishop of Winchester, lent to the king for the keeping and defence of France and Normandy and for the present voyage thither a sum of 13,000 marks, the king has granted to him, his executors and assigns for the payment of 4,066l. 18s. 4d. thereof, all the subsidies and customs and all profits and commodities in the port of Suthampton, except that sum which was levied out of 3,933l. 6s. 8d., assigned by the treasurer of England on 10 February last for the household and delivered to the treasurer of the household, and is not paid at present, and that sum which was levied out of 200l. assigned by the treasurer of England on 19 March last for the king's alms and delivered to John Delabere, clerk, king's almoner, and is not paid at present; until the cardinal, his executors or assigns be satisfied of the said sum of 4,066l. 18s. 4d.; grant further that he, his executors or assigns name to the treasurer of England a person as one of the customers in the said port and members thereof, who shall have the whole receipt of all customs therein, till they be satisfied of the said sum, which customer shall account at the Exchequer touching all his receipts and payments and shall have letters of acquittance of the cardinal, his executors or assigns, so that the keeper of the privy seal shall cause to be made for the chancellor at their request the necessary letters patent and writs under the Great Seal. By K. etc.

June 23. Westminster.

Pardon to William Tounkyns of Wytteney, co. Oxford, 'yoman,' of his outlawry in the county of Oxford for not appearing before the king to satisfy him of his ransom for not producing before the king William Baynelles of Kenevete, co. Oxford, the younger, 'laborer,' to answer John Welde touching a plea of trespass; he having surrendered to the Marshalsea prison, as John Fortescu, chief justice, has certified.

Grant during good behaviour to William Landwath, for good service to Henry V, of the office of being the king's cordwainer (allutarius) with the wages and profits thereto belonging and a robe yearly at Christmas, as the king's tailor and broderer have.
