administrator and commendator of the monastery of St. Mary de Gloria of the Florentian order, in the diocese of Anagni, dated at Orvieto (Ubi Vobis) in the bishop's palace, 15 May, 1413, setting forth that whereas Pope Gregory IX, founder of the said monastery, granted thereto the churches of All Saints, Lidile, and St. Leonard, Magor, in the dioceses of Canterbury and Llandaff, and afterwards it was shown that the fruits, rents and revenues thereof were diminished, wherefore Pope John XXII granted to the monastery the Cistercian abbey and convent of Tynterne, in the diocese of Llandaff, he with John, the prior, and Paul, the sub-prior, and the whole convent of the said monastery de Gloria transfers all actions real and personal, rights and dues in the said churches to the right and property of the monastery of Tynterne and incorporates the said churches therein; provided that the said churches be not defrauded of due services, and that the cure of souls be not neglected therein, and that the abbot and convent of Tynterne be bound to pay episcopal rights and to support other accustomed charges of the same churches. (2) a bull of Pope John, dated at Penmonia, 11 March in the fourth year of his pontificate, reciting and confirming the above. Pardon also to the abbot and convent for all offenses herein. By K. etc.
