MEMBRANE 21.

June 26. Westminster. Revocation of the protection with clause ultimam for one year granted on 21 April last to Guy Fairfax of Walton, co. York, 'gentilman,' as staying on the king's service in the company of the king's knight Henry Percy, warden of the East March towards Scotland and captain of the town and castle of Berwick upon Tweed, on the victualling of the same; because he tarries at Walton by Wyghell and elsewhere in the county on his own affairs, as the sheriff thereof has certified.

July 4. Westminster. Signification to H. archbishop of Canterbury of the royal assent to the election in the conventual church of St. Mary the Virgin, Bilsyngton, in the diocese of Canterbury, of the order of St. Augustine, of Laurence Wates, canon of the Augustinian house or priory of Cowmbewell, as prior of the house of Bilsyngton.

June 12. Westminster. Grant, for life, to Henry Wareme, groom of the chamber, of the keeping of the park of Troughbhek, co. Westmoreland, to hold himself or by deputy from Michaelmas in the eighteenth year, with the herbage, pannage, 'wyndfall' and 'browsyng' therein, and all other usual profits rendering for the herbage and pannage 10s. yearly, notwithstanding that the same is worth more: in lieu of a like grant thereof by letters patent, surrendered in order to obtain the office in a more effective form. By p.s. etc.

July 4. Westminster. Appointment of William Veyssy, 'brickmaker,' to take masons and layers (positurus) called 'brickleggers' for the works of Eton College at the king's wages, and to commit to prison all contrary herein. By K. etc.

July 16. Westminster. Pope Eugenius IV having granted by bull to Richard, earl of Salisbury, that eight of the chaplains and members of his household (familiaribus), who celebrate mass and other divine services in his chapel, whom he shall appoint, may receive the fruits, rents and provent of all their ecclesiastical benefices, with or without cure, which they held and shall hold, though they be parish churches or their perpetual vicarages, or in cathedral, metropolitan or collegiate churches, or canonsries, prebends, dignities, parsonages (personatus), administrations or offices, provided that any such dignity in a metropolitan cathedral be not next after the pontifical nor the chief in a collegiate church,—except the daily distributions, so long as they are occupied in the said services, and that they be not bound to reside in the said benefices; and the same Pope, by another bull reviving the above, having commanded the bishops of Durham, Salisbury and Norwich to cause the said fruits, rents and provent to be made over to (responderi) the said chaplains or their proctors, not permitting them to be forced to reside meanwhile in the said churches or places: the king has pardoned the said earl, bishops, chaplains, household
