1442.

Grant, for life, to the king’s esquire William Moryng of the office of parker of the park of Clipston, co. Nottingham, to hold himself or by deputy, with the wages of 2d. a day to be taken yearly out of the farm of the herbage and pannage of the park, and 14d. for the support of the pale of the park out of the same farm, and if the said farm extend not to the said payment, the surplus is to be taken yearly out of the fee farm of the town of Clipston, with other due fees and profits. By p.s. etc.

Grant to Ralph Cromwell, knight, and his heirs of the manor of Sutton by Chesewyk, co. Middlesex, for which 60s. yearly has been answered at the Exchequer, rendering a rose yearly at Midsummer for all services; in lieu of a grant of the keeping thereof for twenty years to Edmund Hungerford, knight, and Hugh Dyke by letters patent dated 16 February in the ninth year, and of a grant thereof to Ralph by letters patent dated 13 October in the sixteenth year, surrendered as invalid.

1443.

Jan. 10. Dogmersfield.

Exemption, for life, of John Norreys, esquire for the body, from being put on assizes, juries, inquisitions, attaints or recognitions, from being made sheriff, escheator, bailiff, coroner, collector, assessor or taxer of tenths, fifteenths, quotas or other tallages or subsidies, collector of a reasonable aid on the knighthood of the king’s first-born son or the marriage of his first-born daughter, from being elected knight of the shire or appointed as justice of labourers, keeper of the peace, justice to enquire or other chief justice, constable, trier, arrayer or leader of men at arms, hobelers or others, or other bailiff or minister of the king, from being sworn on any trial of array of any assize and from being empanelled on any grand assize against his will; and the king wills that no goods of him or his tenants be taken by bailiffs, purveyors (captors) or buyers of victuals for the king’s or others’ household or by other ministers whatsoever.

By p.s. etc.

Grant, for life, to the king’s kinsman John, viscount of Beaumont, of two parts of the manors of Frampton and Wikes, co. Lincoln, of the county and honour of Richemond, with knight’s fees and two parts of the profits and emoluments of the mills, stalls, granaries, tronages, stallsages, peascod, passages, meares of oil, lastages, profits of courts, leagues, views of tranquplifedge, soke, wapenmates, markets and fairs and two parts of wreck of sea, ‘wayves, estrayes,’ lines, amercements, chattels, of feorns and fugitives, outlaws, wastes, appreycaments, and all dues, issues and commodities of and in all liberties, franchises, returns of writs, with pastures of animals and profit of ‘housebote’ and ‘hayebote’ and other emoluments thereto belonging, with the soke and profits of the soke of Skarbekke and Kirketon which belong to the king; grant further to him of the remainder of the third part of the said manors and the advowson of the free chapel of Wikes, which Richard Wydevylle and Jacquetta his wife, duchess of Bedford, hold in survivorship in dower of Jacquetta of the king’s inheritance after the death of John, duke of Bedford, late her husband, with like appurtenances.

By K. etc.

Ratification of the estate of William Saunders as parson of the church of St. Peter, Somercotes, in the diocese of Lincoln.

By p.s. etc.

Grant to Walter Peytwyn, clerk, of the prebend of Walton in the king’s free chapel of Bruggenorth, void by the resignation of Master Fulk Bermyngham.

Mandate to the dean and chapter to admit him.

By p.s. etc.