1443

Westminster.

Grant to William de la Pole, earl of Suffolk, in tail male, of the keepings of the king's park of Fremantell by Kyngescleere, co. Southampton, with the wages of 3d. a day and all usual profits out of the issues of the county, with power to appoint parkers.

By p.s. etc.

Aug. 16.
Westminster.

Grant to William de la Pole, earl of Suffolk, and Alice his wife, their heirs and assigns of 3 hides, 41 virgates and 104 acres of land and 3 messuages in Estworldham and Nuttel, held of late by John de Venutz who rendered therefor 100s. yearly, and 2 acres of land in Worldham held by the same rendering 12d. yearly, of 20 acres, 9 roods of underwood in Benesworth held by Peter de Worldham at a rent of 9s. 11d., and an acre of land by the park of Estworldham held by the said John at a rent of 4d. yearly, of 6 acres of land by the said park held by John Venutz at a rent of 4d. yearly, and of 11 acres of land, 20 perches of land, half an acre and 1 rood of land in the forest of Wohmene enclosed in the park, held by Thomas Chaucer, to hold to the earl and his wife at a rose rent at Midsummer; and release to them, their heirs and assigns of the king's right therein.

By p.s. etc.

Feb. 2.
Westminster.

Grant, for life, to John Pleysted of the keepings of the gaol of Yvelcheste, co. Somerset, with the appurtenant profits and commodities; in lieu of a grant thereof to the king's serjeant, Richard Randolf, by letters patent, surrendered.

By p.s. etc.

June 5.
Westminster.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by the prior of the church of St. Mary, Merton, and the convent of that place to the provost and college of Eton by Wyndesore of a weir on the river Thames in Upton, co. Buckingham, of old called 'Bullokesloke' with the fishery and waters thereto pertaining, to wit, from the east corner of the land or close called 'le Werde' on the west side to the fishery in the river called 'Colkeshole' on the east side with four 'hextes' and all those lands, meadows, feeding-grounds, pastures with torrents called 'Mychelmywrdeshay,' 'Millepond,' alias 'Milledam' and 'Cowpennymynge,' enclosed and lying by Eton between the Thames on the east and the way leading from New Wyndesore towards 'le Slough' on the west and between 'le Werde' on the south and the way leading from 'Spittelbrigge' to Datchet on the north, and extending by the bank of the Thames from 'le Werde' 10 feet beyond 'Cowpennymynge' on the east, all which is held by the prior and convent in frank alhumin, in exchange for 100s. yearly which the abbot of Redyng renders to the provost and college from a yearly farm for lands in Esthennrith, co. Berks, of the king's grant. Licence also for the provost and college to grant the said rent to the prior and convent. By K. etc.

May 25.
Westminster.

Whereas on the petition of John atte Welle, son and heir of William atte Welle, touching his title to a messuage and two virgates of land in Byfeld, the king commissioned Thomas Wodevyile and Richard Knightley to make inquisition thereon [Calendar, 1429-1430, pp. 121, 122]; and by inquisition taken before them at Brikkelesworth on Thursday after Corpus Christi,