two parts thereof by letters patent dated 8 November, 18 Henry VI, with remainder of the third part after the death of Jacquetta late the wife of John, duke of Bedford, who holds the same in dower, to hold as above by the service of a third part of a knight's fee, rendering yearly for the said two parts after the death of Ralph and John during the life of Jacquetta 8s. 11d. at the Receipt of the Exchequer, and for the whole of the premises after Jacquetta's death 8s. 8d. at the same Receipt, without any other account, services, exactions and secular demands [Calendar, 1436-1441, p. 407]; of 50 marks, 8s. 10d. yearly, which sum is paid to Humphrey, earl of Stafford, by Thomas Radclyf, knight, and Thomas Haryngton, esquire, for two parts of the manor of Wyresdale, co. Lancaster, which was granted to them for a term of years, the said rent being granted to Humphrey with the reversion of the two parts for life by letters patent dated 2 May, 16 Henry VI, to hold to the duke of Somerset as above during the said term and life of Humphrey, but taking it from the farm of the subsidy and uhlage of cloth for sale in Somerset in recompense of the said two parts of the manor of Wireshale [ibid. p. 161]; of the manors of Solyhall and Sheldon, co. Warwick, to hold as above during the lives of Jacquetta, late the wife of John, duke of Bedford, Ralph Boteller and John Beauchamp, in recompense of all the possessions above recited in the forest of Dene; of 13 l. 12s. 23d. yearly during the life of the said Henry Waren from the farm of the subsidy and uhlage on cloth for sale in Surrey and Sussex, in recompense of the said herbage and pannage in the park of Troughtebek, to hold as above; of two parts of the lordship or manor of Bowes, co. York, to hold as above during the life of Walter Strikeland, in recompense of the herbage and pannage of the park of Calgarth and the other premises above recited therewith; of 25 l. 12s. 10d. yearly from the farm of the subsidy and uhlage of cloth for sale in Bristol and its suburbs, in recompense of two parts of all the lands in the hamlets of Crossethwayte and Hoton in Strikelandketill and in the towns of Forsethwayte, Striklandketill and Helsington, and of the fishery of Kent, co. Westmoreland, and of all the lands in Whittington, co. Lancaster, the keeping of which lands was granted for a term of ten years to Thomas Parre, knight, by letters patent dated 21 February, 17 Henry VI, and a rent therefrom of 25 l. 12s. 10d. to William Ayscough, justice of the Bench, during the same term, with reversion of the premises for life after the said term, by letters patent dated 21 October, 21 Henry VI, [Cf. ibid. p. 543, and above p. 131], to hold to the duke as above during the said term and during the life of William Ayscough; of 66 l. 13s. 1d. yearly during the said Jacquetta's life out of the issues of two parts of the manor of Banningbourne and the bailiwick of Badburgham alias Hadburham, co. Cambridge, and 56 l. 7s. 1d. from the farm of the subsidy and uhlage on cloth for sale in Suffolk and Essex, in recompense of the aforesaid possessions in the forest of Dene, save those held by Jacquetta in dower, to hold as above; of two parts of the lordships, manors, towns or hamlets of Gresmere, Loghrige, Langdon, Amlsall, Troughtebek and Casterton, co. Westmoreland, and the bailiwick of Lonesdale alias Lonesdale, and the borough of Kyrkeby in Kendale, and the timber thereof, and all rents, farms and profits in the office of the bailiwick of the serjeanty of Kendale, co. Westmoreland, the third part thereof being held by Jacquetta in dower for life, to hold to the duke and his heirs as above with all their appurtenances (specified). And the king will recompense him and them for any defect herein or for any recovery of any of the premises hereafter made.

By p.s. etc.