Grant, for life, to the king’s sergeant William Shirley, page of the chamber, of 4l. 6s. 7d. which Geoffrey le Scrop and his heirs were bound to pay to the king because of an exchange for the residue of the manor of Boudon and Haverbergh, co. Leicester, with which sum they are charged to the sheriff of Yorkshire on their lands in that county, to hold as Robert Percy of Knaresburgh forest had in his life of the grant of Henry IV, confirmed by the king.

By p.s., etc.

Grant in frank almnin to the abbess and convent of St. Saviour’s, Syon, of the manor of Hynton called ‘Uphallie,’ co. Cambridge, and all lands, rents and services late of Henry FitzHugh, lord of Ravensworth, deceased, in Hynton, Great Wilburgham and Little Wilburgham, co. Cambridge, which the said Henry granted to Thomas, bishop of Durham, deceased, by the name of Thomas Langlely, dean of the cathedral church of St. Peter, York, chancellor of England, with Master William Cawode, late canon of the collegiate church of Ripon, Richard de Norton, John de Burgh, Hugh de Lincoln, late rector of the church of Tanfield, John de Laton, late rector of the church of St. Ronald, and John Aysecoth late of Callyngne, all deceased, to the intent that they should grant the same to the king and that the king should grant the same to the said abbess and convent, when the said monastery should be founded; and John de Laton and John Aysecoth released all their right therein to the said bishop, who demised the same to Henry V, who had newly founded the said monastery but, as the king learn’d, did not complete the said demise.

By K. etc.

Licence, for 26s. 8d. paid in the hamaper, for Edward Lytyll, clerk, and Thomas Emdyssh, chaplain, to grant for life to Ralph Astley a messuage and 10 shops in the parish of St. Sepulchre without the bar of West-smythfield, London, held in chief, with successive remainders to William son of Ralph in tail male, to Philip brother of William in tail male, and to Thomas brother of Philip in tail male, with remainder over to the right heirs of Ralph.

Exemplification, at the request of the tenants of the manor of Forke, co. Salop, of letters patent dated 23 November, 9 Richard II. [Calendar, 1385-1389, p. 51.

Grant, during good behaviour, to the king’s servant Thomas Barton of the king’s chamber, of the office of receiver of the lordship of Kendale, with the wages of 10l. yearly, as William Bedford had of late, and 2s. a day when he is occupied about the business in the office, taking the same from his receipts, and all other usual profits; notwithstanding that he has the office of keeping the park of Burn, co. Lincoln, during the minority of the heir of John, late duke of Somerset.

By K. etc.

In personal and confirmation, by advice and assent of the lords spiritual and temporal in the Parliament held at Westminster in the king’s first year, to the prior and convent of Marton of a charter dated at York, 27 January, 7 Edward III. [Charter Roll, 7 Edward III. No. 42.

Grant, for life, to the king’s servant Thomas Belgrave of the office of one of the king’s sergeants at arms, with the wages of 12s. a day from the issues of Somerset and Dorset from Michaelmas last, and a gown of the king’s livery of vesture at Christmas, as other sergeants at arms have, and all other appurtenant profits and fees.

By p.s. etc.