Membrane 4 — cont.

Whereas Robert Hunte and Katharine his wife by fine levied before the justices of the Bench between them and Robert Darcy and Thomas Kempston acknowledged the third part of the manor of Alfreton in Durnow, and Bacons in Dunesey, and the advowson of a third part of the free chapel in the church of Dunesey, co. Essex, and the third part of the manors of Oldhale in Marham and Westtoftes, co. Norfolk, held in chief, to be the right of Thomas; and for this acknowledgement Robert Darcy and Thomas granted the premises to Robert Hunte and Katharine and the heirs of their bodies, with remainder to the right heirs of Katharine, and Henry Bourgeier, count of Ew, William de Ferrieris, lord of Groby, knight, John Doreward, esquire, Robert de Cavendisse, Richard Fitz Nichole, Robert Cope, chaplain, William Riche, Robert Payroll, the of the church of Canesfeld, Master Richard Lyghtfoot, chaplain, and John Braybrook, chaplain, and the heirs of Robert Cope; and afterwards Robert Hunte and Katharine his wife and Simon Lyndesall by fine levied between them and Thomas Mullynge and Richard Holmane acknowledged the premises by the name of a third part of the manors of Bacons in Dunesey and Alfretonhall in Great Durnowe, and of the advowson of a third part of the free chapel or prebend in the church of Dunesey, and a third part of the manors of Marham and Westtoftes, co. Norfolk, to be the right of Thomas Mullynge, for which acknowledgement Thomas Mullynge and Richard Holmane granted the premises to Robert Hunte and Katharine for life and two years beyond, with remainder to Thomas Dayrell and Isabel his wife and the heirs of Isabel's body, with remainder over to the right heirs of Katharine; and afterward Robert Hunte and Katharine granted their estate in the manor of Alfretonhall to the said Thomas Dayrell and Isabel, without the royal licence:—the king, for 8 marks paid in the hanaper, has pardoned the said Thomas Dayrell and Isabel and granted licence for them to retain the manor.

Membrane 4.

Licence for the abbey and convent of the monastery of St. Mary, York, to enclose the manor of Oureton, certain close called 'Paynlathecroft,' alias 'Thorpyncroft,' 'Milnecluse' within the forest of Galtres, a close by the water of Uce in Bouthon called 'Lyttel Ynce,' certain parcels of land enclosed with a pale lying without the walls of the abbey in length from the bar of Bouthon to a round tower by 'Sevint Marjgate,' the site of the church of the monastery from 'Gahum' alias the bar of Bouthon by the ditch of York on the south of the abbey to the thread (niveau) of the water of Uce on the west of the abbey and from the said thread to a ditch by the said thread to a ditch on the north of the said close called 'Lyttel Ynce,' and thence by the ditch to a stone wall on the east of a garden called 'Almery Garby' and so by the wall southward to the garden of the