and ames and also by bills endoced by our chamberleyyn and clerk of our counsil, have made our lettres patentes under our grete seel we hold thrym ferme and stable and of as grete strength and valew and to yowe as sufficent warrant as though ye had had for thyme our lettres of privy seel any statut, charge, restraint, act or commaundement to yowe made in and the contrarye notwythstanding. Yeven under our privy seel at our manoir within our park of Wyndesore the vy. day of Novembre, the yere of our regne xviiij. [Fyrder.]

Nov. 10. Westminster. Whereas the abbes and convent of the monastary of St. Saviour, Syon, have shewn that though by letters patent dated 11 March last they were pardoned divers entries and intrusions (see p. 256), yet, because it is contained among the records of Chancery that John Blowet, late sheriff of Cornwall, is charged in his account at the Exchequer touching issues from Michaelmas, 21 Henry VI, to Michaelmas, 22 Henry VI, among his totals of the Pype, to wit, 17s. for John Naufen, late sheriff, from the issues of the priory of St. Michael's Mount, co. Cornwall, 33l. 6s. 8l. for John Marney, late sheriff, from the same, and 33l. 6s. 8l. for Thomas Whale-brewe, late sheriff, from the same, and from other causes the said letters are invalid for the discharge of the said sheriffs therefor and for the lands late of the abbey of St. Nicholas, Angers, in Spaldyng, co. Lincoln, and the whole charge will fall on the abbess and convent: the king, because none of the sheriffs has received any of the said sums, has pardoned the abbess and convent all entries into the said priory hitherto, and released to them and the sheriffs the said sums; parured also to the abbess and convent of all entries into the lands in Spaldyng and Pynchebek, co. Lincoln, parcel of the alien priory of Cosham, and into the manor and lands late of the said abbey of St. Nicholas in Spaldyng and Pynchebek, and all issues thereof received by them. By K. etc.

Nov. 10. Westminster. Appointment during good behaviour of John Bernyngheam and Robert Pylton as surveyors of the search in the ports of Southampton and Pole. By p.s. etc.

Nov. 17. Westminster. Pardon to William Roper of Gowtherst, who fled to the church of Merden and before John Downe, coroner in the hundred of Middleton and Merden, co. Kent, confessed on Wednesday after Whitsunday, 16 Henry VI, that he had slain John Spone, and sought to absolve the realm, which he did before the four nearest villages and was given the port of Winchelsea; because he committed the felony by mischance and in self-defence, and has been a soldier in Normandy since. By p.s. etc.

Nov. 26. Westminster. Grant, for life, to the king's knight Richard Veer, for good service about the king's person from the king's tender age in the wars of France, Normandy and Aquitaine at his great costs, he having had no reward save the lordship of Camne in Aquitaine, which is of the smallest value, of 20l. yearly out of the farms of the counties of Cambridge and Huntingdon from the time of the death of Isabel, lady Camoys, who had the same for life. By p.s. etc.

Nov. 29. Westminster. Pardon to Llewellyn ap John, one of the king's tenants in the county of Kermelyn, of two parts of a fine of 50 marks, which he was condemned to pay by the chamberlain for a felony whereof he was unjustly indicted, if he have paid, as he says, the third part thereof in the Exchequer of Kermelyn. By p.s. etc.