Exemplification, on the oath of William Clement that the original is lost, of letters patent in his favour dated 29 May, 18 Henry VI.

Licence, for 40l. paid in the hanaper, for Margaret late the wife of John Palmer, Philip Tyney, clerk, Richard Benyngton, John Lawys, Robert Forman, John Quyckrell, John Woodehorp, William Godynge, John Wyles, William Thorlande, Henry Williamson, Richard Derby, Robert Cadney and William Golderyng to found a perpetual brotherhood of themselves and others in the town of Boston in honour of St. Mary the Virgin; and the brethren shall elect yearly an alderman, who shall be able to plead and be impleaded in any court, and they shall remove him if need be; they shall be incorporate, having a common seal and able to acquire lands to them and their successors; licence also for Richard Haugh, Richard Benyngton, Thomas Elete, John Kyghle, Robert Cokes, chaplain, and James Simond and others to grant in mortmain to the said alderman lands to the value of 20 marks yearly, not held in chief by knight service, after due inquisition.

Be it remembered that on 28 November, 26 Henry VI, the said alderman acquired from the said Richard Benyngton, Thomas, Robert Cokes and James 5 messuages, 31 acres of land, 10 acres of pasture in Boston and Skyrbek, extended at W. 15s. 4d. yearly, to hold as of the value of 100l. in part satisfaction of the said 20 marks of land.

Grant, during good behaviour, to the king's serjeant John Plummer, one of the clerks of the chapel, for his daily labours in the teaching and rule of the king's boys of the chapel, of the said teaching, rule and governance.

Whereas James Griddle and William Whityngham, chaplains, were seised of late in their demesne as of fee to the use of Peter Stanley and Margery his wife, of certain messuages and lands held of the king as earl of Chester in socage in the towns of Flynt, Colshull, Halywall, Merton, Kylkeyn, Dolveghles, Hallky and Eulowco, co. Flynt, and granted the same to the king by their charter dated Friday after Midsummer, 22 Henry VI, to wit, 39 messuages, 4 gardens, 585 acres of land, 39 acres of meadow, 100 acres of pasture, 89 acres of wood, a moiety of a fulling mill, the fourth part of a messuage, the fifth part of a water-mill and the eighth part of a water-mill; witnessed by Gilbert del Wode, Gilbert de Balbury, Thomas de Werburton, John de Wolton, John Skynnere and others:—the king has granted the premises to the said Peter and Margery and the heirs and assigns of Margery to hold of the king and his heirs, earl of Chester, by homage and fealty and the service of a fourth part of a knight's fee.

Grant, for life, to the king's esquire Walter Sculle, of the office of chief remembrancer in the Exchequer of Ireland, to hold himself or by deputy, with the usual wages, fees and profits.

Grant, for life, to the king's serjeant Thomas Danyell, esquire, of the office of chamberlain of Chester, with the usual wages, fees and profits, to hold himself or by deputy immediately after the death of John Trouwebeke, now chamberlain; and if John have offended or offend, Thomas shall enter the office.

Grant, for life, to Thomas Normanton of 4d. a day from the fee farm of Canterbury, immediately after the decease of Thomas Cosene, who has the same by grant of Henry IV, confirmed by Henry V.