escheats, rents, services, franchises, privileges, liberties and free customs thereto belonging, of a fair within the town of Stretton on the eve, day and morrow of St. Margaret, yearly, with toll, stallage, pircage and passage and all profits and liberties of the fair, and of free warren throughout the manor, and grant to the same that no purveyor, taker, buyer or other officer of the king or other person take aught of them, their tenants or farmers within the manor; grant also to them of the advowson of the parish church of St. Pancras by Axmestre, co. Devon, in frank almoine. Licence, further, for them to grant to the king's servants Master John Somerseth and John Langton, their heirs and assigns, a stone house in Cambridge called 'Merton Hall,' 11 tofts, a water-mill, 2 several fisheries, 260 acres of arable land, 25 acres of meadow, 10 acres of pasture, 11½. 6d. of rent of assize, the liberty of half a fold, ½. rental capons, ½. of pepper, ½. of cummin, 9 beneworkers and a yearly rent, pension or custom called 'warpeny' in Cambridge, Newenham, Howys, Grytton, Grammeet, Coton, Over Chesterton, and Bernwell, co. Cam-bridge, of the ancient foundation of the said house of scholars, held of the king, on condition that, if the said warden and scholars should be expelled from the manor of Stretton or any parcel thereof by reason of any title before the date of these presents or of any statute or act of Parliament, without cognizance on their part, they may enter the said messuages and other premises aforesaid or an equivalent parcel thereof; and mandate to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer and all other officers or heges of the king to deliver to the warden and scholars all muniments and evidences touching the manor in their keeping, when they shall be required: in lieu of a grant to the same by letters patent dated 1 March, 21 Henry VI, surrendered. By K. etc.

June 29. Westminster. Pardon to John Smyth of Fowey, co. Cornwall, 'marchaunt,' Stephen Mark of the parish of Seintclore, co. Cornwall, 'marchaunt,' John Stapp of Landlip, co. Cornwall, mariner, and Patrick Donne of Saltayssh, co. Cornwall, mariner, of all trespasses, offences, contempts and misprisions hitherto, and of all actions, demands, writs, executions and impeachments and of any forfeitures of goods incurred by them. By p.s. etc.

April 7. Westminster. Licence for Edmund de Trafford, knight, and Thomas Assheton, knight, and their servants to pursue their art of transmutation of metals. By p.s. etc.