Membrane 9—cont.

Pardon to John, bishop of Worcester, of all that pertains to the king for the escape of John Plummer from the prison of Worcester. By K. etc.

Grant, for life, to Philip Courtenay and Edmund Hungerford, knights, of the forest of Dertmore, co. Devon, and all that pertains to the king therein, at such a rent as the Exchequer as is rendered at present, and grant that no surveyor or other person survey or meddle in the said forest or in the 'Fyndefeldes' in the same. By K. etc.

Licence for the prior and convent of Mullicourt to grant in mortmain to the prior and convent of Ely a messuage and 24 acres of land in Wygnaile called 'Towtes' and 8 messuages in Otwell. Upwell and Downham, in the counties of Cambridge and Norfolk, whereof one messuage lies in Otwell, co. Cambridge, by the message of Thomas Man on the north and abuts on the common bank, another lies in the same town and county called 'Sumpters' by the message of John Cony on the south and abuts on the common bank, another lies in the same, co. Norfolk, by the message of John Smyth on the north and abuts on the common bank, another lies in Otwell, co. Norfolk, by the foot of the bridge by the message late of Thomas Barbour on either side, another lies in the same by the message of William Tyler on the west and abuts on the common bank, another lies in Upwell, co. Norfolk, by the message of Thomas Man on the west and abuts on Smedelode, and another lies in Downham, co. Norfolk, by the message of Thomas Spencer and abuts on the common way, and 7 acres in Emneth and all other lands, rents and services of the grantees in Otwell, Emneth, Walsokyn, Downham and Lenn, co. Norfolk, and in Otwell, Upwell, Wysebech and Leverington, co. Cambridge; and licence for the prior and convent of Ely, with the assent of those having interest herein, to annex the priory of Mullicourt to their church and hold the same in frank almoine, and to acquire lands and rents to the value of 10 marks a year, not held in chief, in frank almoine. By K. etc.

Grant, for life, to the king's knight John Deschales of a tun of red wine yearly in the port of Lynne. By p.s. etc.

MEMBRANE 9.

Grant, on the petition of Adam, bishop of Chichester, keeper of the privy seal, in honour of the Holy Trinity and out of reverence for Richard, sometime bishop of the cathedral church, whose body is buried therein, and in consideration of the petitioner's services in England and France at great cost, to the said cathedral church of Holy Trinity and St. Richard, Chichester, and to the said bishop and the canons and ecclesiastical ministers of the church, that all their lordships, manors, lands, fees and possessions be wholly exempt from the jurisdiction of the admiral of England and his commissaries, officers, deputies, lieutenants and ministers; and if anything occur pertaining to the office of the admiral which can be corrected, heard or determined within the said possessions and parts of the church, the king will cause the reward or habit of the liberty of the bishop and other persons to proceed in the matter, all other commissions to others to be void. By p.s. etc.

Commission to A. bishop of Chichester, keeper of the privy seal, and the king's knight John, lord of Dudley, king's councillors, to treat for peace with Charles, the king's uncle of France. [Festa.] By K.