In the first two volumes is a History of England, from the death of Henry III. to the death of Henry V., by Thomas Walshingham, Precentor of St. Albans.

In the third volume is a Chronicle of English History, attributed to William Rishanger, who lived in the reign of Edward I.: an account of transactions attending the award of the kingdom of Scotland to John Haliol, 1291-1292, also attributed to William Rishanger, but on no sufficient ground: a short Chronicle of English History, 1292 to 1300, by an unknown hand: a short Chronicle, William Rishanger. The Edward Primi, Regis Anglie, probably by the same hand, and fragments of three Chronicles of English History, 1285 to 1307.

In the fourth volume is a Chronicle of English History, 1299 to 1309: Annals of Edward II., 1307 to 1328, by John de Trokelowe, a monk of St. Albans, and a continuation of Trokelowe's Annals, 1323, 1324, by Henry de Blakenbe, a full Chronicle of English History, 1309 to 1406, and an account of the beneficats of St. Albans, written in the early part of the 15th century. The 5th, 6th and 7th volumes contain a history of the Abbey of St. Albans, 743 to 1411, mainly compiled by Thomas Walshingham, with a Continuation.

The Chronicles, in continuation of the Annals, contain a Chronicle probably of John Amundesham, a monk of St. Albans.

The 10th and 11th volumes relate especially to the acts and proceedings of Abbot Wethamsteed, Albon, and Wallingford.

The 12th volume contains a comprehensive History of England to the reign of Henry V. and of Normandy in early times also by Thomas Walshingham, and dedicated to Henry V.

The Chronicle of Evesham illustrates the history of that important monastery from 690 to 1418. Its chief feature is an autobiography, which makes us acquainted with the inner daily life of a great abbey. Interspersed are many notices of general, personal, and local history.

Richard of Cirencester's history is in four books, and gives many charters in favour of Westminster Abbey, and a very full account of the lives and miracles of the saints, especially of Edward the Confessor, whose reign occupies the fourth book. A treatise on the Coronation, by William of Radburn, a monk of Westminster, fills book ii. c. 5.
