MEMORANDA 26.
Exemption for life of John Seward of London, 'plummer,' from being made mayor, sheriff, escheator, coroner, collector, assessor or trier of tenths, fifteenths or other tallages or subsidies, constable, trier, arrayer, commissioner or other bailiff or minister of the king, from being sworn on any trial of the array of any assize and from being put on assizes, juries, inquisitions or attainats.
By p.s. and of the said date by authority of Parliament.

Whereas by letters patent the king granted to Ralph, lord Sudeley, knight, and John Beauchamp, knight, the farm of all the lordships, manors and lands in the king's hands by the death of Henry, duke of Warwick, during the minority of his heir, the king, considering that William, marquis and earl of Suffolk, bought of late the keeping of Anne, daughter and heir of the said duke, and that Richard, earl of Salisbury, is her grandfather and would therefore be more friendly and favourable to Anne than any other person, has granted the said farm within the counties of Worcester, Gloucester, and Warwick and the march of Wales to the said marquis, Ralph and John during the heir's minority, and the farm of all other possessions of the late duke in England and the town and march of Calais to the said marquis, Richard, Ralph and John, as shall be agreed with the king and council before Christmas. Grant also to the same farmers that they may appoint all officers in the said possessions from the duke's death during the said minority and that letters patent thereon may be made from time to time by the chancellor of England, as often as need be; provided always that the present letters be not prejudicial to any offices granted hitherto to James Fenys, knight, John Norreys, John Wenlok, Thomas Danyell and Edmund Mountford. By K. etc.

Protection with clause volumus for one year for John, earl of Shrewsbury, lieutenant of Ireland, going to that land on the safekeeping thereof.
By bill of p.s. etc.

The like for John Talbot, knight, the elder, son and heir of the said earl, going to Ireland in his company, as above. By bill of p.s. etc.
