treasurer of Calais, in the parts of Picardy, on the safe-keeping and victualling of that town; because he tarries at Arwennuck and elsewhere in the said county, as the sheriff has certified.

April 29. Grant for life to the king's serjeant, William Soper, for good service to Henry IV, Henry V and the king, of 20 marks yearly from Michaelmas last from the customs and subsidies in the port of Suthampton. By K. etc.

March 4. Grant for life to the king's servant, Thomas Barton, yeoman of the chamber, of a piece of ground in the sea called 'le Rye and Wose,' St. Edmunds co. Essex, in the parishes of Lye and Haddeley. By K. etc.

April 25. Pardon, on the petition of Isabel de Warbulton of Cheshire, Westminster, 'sengilwoman,' to William Haywode late of London, 'broderer,' as above [p. 33.] By K. etc.

March 29. Grant for life to the king's serjeant, Robert Manfeld, esquire, usher of the chamber, of 11l. yearly from Michaelmas last from the fee farm of Colcestre, co. Essex. By p.s. etc.

May 23. Grant, during pleasure, to the king's clerk, John Faukes, clerk of Chancery, of the office of clerk of the parliament, taking yearly 40l. from the issues of the hanaper. By K.

MEMORIES 4 and 3.

Feb. 1. Inspectimus and confirmation to Maud Lovell, abbess of Romesye, and the convent of that place, of letters patent dated 29 November, 5 Henry V, inspecting and confirming letters patent dated 20 February, 2 Henry IV. [Calendar. 1339-1401, p. 441.]

For 4 marks paid in the hanaper.

MEMORANE 3 (cont.)

March 21. Grant in survivorship to the king's serjeants, John Hamond, chaplain, and John Brewester, clerks in the office of the privy seal, of 26l. 13s. 4d. yearly from the issues of the fee farm and from other farms of the city and county of Norwich, until they be provided for in an office or otherwise to that value. By p.s. etc.

March 17. Grant to the king's knight, John Stourton, treasurer of the household his heirs and assigns, of the castle of Old Sarum, co. Wilts, now fallen into decay, so that no yearly rent thereof is answered for to the king, and of the ditches, banks, houses and walls thereof and all gardens, land, islands, meadows, pastures, waters, water-course and closes of the king in Old Sarum, with all the lands, which John Chittern, constable of the castle, holds by virtue of letters patent touching his office, and with all other lands and appurtenances, to hold by feealty at a rent of 3s. 4d.; and acquittance of him and his heirs of the keeping of the gaol of the castle and the prisoners therein, hitherto had by the sheriff of the county, so that they meddle not with the same, and so that after the death of John Chittern, now constable of the castle and keeper of the gaol, the sheriff have the