Membrane 37—cont.

1447.
Feb. 25.
Bury St. Edmunds.

Grant to the king’s knight, Thomas Stanley, and his heirs of the advowson and patronage of the church of Eccleston, co. Lancaster. By p.s. etc.

Feb. 21.
Bury St. Edmunds.

Grant to the king’s serjeant, John Say, yeoman of the crown, of the wardship and marriage of Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Frederick Tynney, deceased, with all appurtenant lands, rents, services and advowsons. By p.s. etc.

Feb. 24.
Bury St. Edmunds.

Grant for life to the king’s serjeant, Thomas Pulford, yeoman of the crown, of the manor of Helwell, co. Lincoln, and the lordship of Stratton, co. Rutland, from the death of Humphrey, late duke of Gloucester, with all appurtenant lands, woods, rents, services, reversions and profits. By p.s. etc.

Westminster.

Grant for life to the king’s servant, Philip Wentworth, usher of the chamber, of a tenement called ‘Chamberleynstenment’ in the parish of Assyendon, co. Essex, late of John Smirry, with all appurtenant lands, meadows, woods, feeding grounds, pastures, water and profits, as Humphrey, duke of Gloucester, had the same. By K. etc.

Feb. 25.
Bury St. Edmunds.

Grant for life to the king’s esquire for the body, John Norys, of the office of steward of the lordships of Cokeham and Bray, co. Berks, to hold himself or by deputy with the wages of 20l. a year from the issues thereof, and all other usual fees and profits, and of the office of keeper of the warren and game within the same, with the wages of 2d. a day from the same issues. By p.s. etc.

Feb. 25.
Bury St. Edmunds.

Grant to Richard, duke of York, and his heirs of the manor of Great Wrotyng, lying in the towns of Wrotyng, Haverell, Great Thulowre and Wythersfeld, with the advowson of the church of Great Wrotyng, co. Suffolk, whereof Humphrey, duke of Gloucester, died seised, and which of right and inheritance are of the said duke of York. By K. etc.

Feb. 28.
Bury St. Edmunds.

Grant for life to the king’s esquire. Henry Everyngham, of the manor called ‘Chamberlains’ within the hundred of Rocheford, co. Essex, which Humphrey, duke of Gloucester, acquired to him, his heirs and assigns, and which after his death descends to the king. By p.s. etc.

1446.
Westminster.

Assignment for life to Richard, duke of York, who will come often to London for the king’s business and his own, for the livery of him and his horses, of the abbey and town of Waltham, as others have had hitherto there or elsewhere. [Facēva.] By p.s. etc.

1447.
March 10.
Westminster.

Grant to the mayor and burgesses of Kyngeston upon Hull, co. York, of late separated from the county of York and incorporated of thirteen aldermen, justices of the peace in the town, and the liberty, suburbs and precinct thereof, whereof one is mayor, and escheator, and of a sheriff and coroner, that the towns of Hesall and Northterby, co. York, which form parts of parishes of Kyngeston, and the towns and hamlets of Swanlond, West Ellay, Kirkellay, Tranby, Willandby, Wofferton and Anlay, and the whole site of the priory of Hautenpris, co. York, and all lordships, lands and